

Team did not withdraw

A few weeks ago it was reported that the juvenile hockey team in the Georgetown Minor Hockey Association (GMHA) withdrew its application to go to Sweden this winter. However, coach Howard Murphy denies ever withdrawing his team.

"The juvenile team never withdrew," he said. "The GMHA came to me in the middle of our OMHA series asking me what I was going to do about fundraising.

"I didn't have the time (to look into raising funds)", he said. "My commitment to hockey at the time was trying to win a championship".

The bantam squad will be going overseas this winter the GMHA decided.

Morrow spent last year on the Blizzard reserve squad, playing in exhibition games with the team. He played a couple of international games with the Blizzard, as well as playing with the national amateur team.

First rugby victory

In their first official Niagara Rugby Union contest, North Halton's rugby team claimed its first win, albeit an exhibition contest.

The locals travelled to Hamilton and beat the home town Hornets 18-0. Steve Springle had two tries to lead the North Halton team while singles went to Scott Martin and Tom Doherty. Craig Lonsdale had a convert.

Tries are four points each, while the convert is worth two points.

Wayne Stobbie and Ralph Kelly played good games for the winners as did Craig Harrison, Dwayne Wilson, Brian Bollert and Steve (Chunky) Doucette.

The team's next game is this weekend when they are on the road against Castlemore Sunday.
