

Redmen do well at Rebel Relays

Acton High School track and field athletes combined for a total of five first place finishes Wednesday at the Rebel Relay meet held at Nelson High School in Burlington.

As well, Acton had two seconds and a third at the meet.

The senior girls relay team of Doreen Uranick, Pam Mahal, Marla Brillinger and Susan Craig finished first in medley of two 200-meter, one 400 and one 800 meter races). The team set a new meet record in the sprint medley event. Acton's senior team was second in the four by 100 relay.

Both Craig and Brillinger are midjet competitors.

The field athletes also had a good day as senior Theresa Dunn won both the discus and shot events. Midget Darryl Bartlett was second in the long jump while Craig was third in the midget girls long jump event.

The next meet for the Acton team is this Friday and Saturday when they will compete at the Father Redmond event slated for St. Michael's in Toronto.

Eagles come back to tie exhibition

Georgetown Junior Eagles took on Mississauga Sunday in an exhibition baseball game, and came away with a 3-3 tie at the Fairgrounds.

The locals were down 3-2 heading into the seventh and final inning, and scored their tying run in the last frame.

Georgetown will have played another exhibition contest against Brampton Tuesday night there. The same two clubs will do battle in another exhibition game Sunday at 1 p.m. at the Fairgrounds as part of the festivities at the Georgetown Baseball Association's Opening Day.

All the other top teams will be playing their first games of the baseball year on the weekend.

Locals going to roast of hockey great

Georgetown native Bob Goldham will be the Master of Ceremonies for a roast of former National Hockey League great Bucko MacDonald.

The roast will be taking place in MacDonald's home town of Sundridge, Ontario on June 1st. Also accompanying Goldham to the roast will be Murray Ezard.

Terra Cotta holds annual Fishing Derby

Trout fishing season is open once again and you and your family are invited to attend the Annual Fishing Derby at the Terra Cotta Conservation Area Saturday, May 11 from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

In addition to the 500 brook trout released earlier, twenty large rainbow trout have been tagged and released into Muskrat Pond. If your luck is good, you could win one of 20 prizes including first prize which is a new fishing rod and reel.

This program is sponsored by the Credit

Valley Conservation Authority. Entrance fee into the area is $5 per vehicle or $1 per person walk-in. Terra Cotta Conservation Area is located just two kilometers north of the Village of Terra Cotta.

Come on out to wildflower hike

On Sunday, May 12 at 1:30 p.m. you're invited to attend a spring wildflower hike at the Terra Cotta Conservation Area.

Wear a good pair of boots, preferably hiking boots and meet your fellow hikers at the start of the nature trail.

This northern landscape is filled with Trilliums, Jack-in-the-Pulpit and Marsh Marigolds.

This program is sponsored by the Credit Valley Conservation Authority.

Entrance into the area is $6 per vehicle on Sundays.
