Ballinafad Happy times for church congregation

By WINIFRED SMITH
Herald Correspondent

BALLINAFAD - This past Sunday was an eventful day in the life of Ballinafad Church, not that anything unusual happened, but that three or more happy occurrences took place during the service.

This resulted in a nice large congregation. Mrs. Ruby Pinkerton's Dad is spending his last week on holidays here before he returns to England.

He was present to tell an interesting and impressive story to the children.

The choir favored with an anthem which everyone enjoyed. There was a baptismal service when Mr. and Mrs. Dan McNiven accompanied their teenage son Ronald to the front of the church as Dr. Bandy read the service of baptism and administered the sacred rites upon Ronald.

This followed by the teens confirmation class being called up. It was a joyous sight to see the row of young people with their parents grouped around the community table.

Each one, as their names were called confirmed their beliefs to the minister as parents and congregation looked on.

Mr. Munro assisted Rev. Bandy with the confirmation. Those that were confirmed were: Ronald McNiven, Steven McLean, Sherri McLean, Rebecca Howes, Christine Kerr and Alison McKelvey.

Huttonville native dies

By KAY WILSON

NORVAL - Sympathy is extended to Bernice Whaley, RR2 Norval on the sudden death of her sister, Dorothy Armstrong (Troyer) of Shelbourne.

She was in her 55th year. The deceased was the beloved wife of Alan and dear mother of three daughters and six grandchildren. Dorothy was born and raised in Huttonville and her former friends and neighbors will be saddened to hear of her untimely passing.

Final euchre

By KAY WILSON
Herald Correspondent

NORVAL - The final euchre of the season was held at Norval Community Centre with six tables.

Winners were Elsie Jarvie, Eva Presswood, Ray Addy and Phil Landry.

Ida Switzer had lone hands and the lucky draw went to Del Wallace.

Barbeque success

By KAY WILSON
Herald Correspondent

NORVAL - Another successful Chicken barbeque combined with musical entertainment was enjoyed by 1,053 people Saturday.

Iva Davidson's group of Terry Laidlaw, Lorne Cunningham and Scotty MacArdy played country style music.

The Cloggers, a toe-tapping dance group did several numbers and Paul Margaret and Brenda of Acton sang several songs.

Even Iva Davidson and Mary Williamson were persuaded to sing a duet.

Come park yourself

Terra Cotta, Orangeville Reservoir and Belfountain Conservation Areas are now open to the public. A wide range of activities have been planned for the 1985 summer season with a variety of recreational experiences from hiking to camping and group picnicking.

The seasonal vehicle pass costs $40 per vehicle parking. You can visit any number of our Conservation Areas during the season's operating hours. Group picnicking, picnic shelters, and pavilions are available at Terra Cotta and Orangeville Reservoir. Give Terra Cotta Conservation Area a call at 877-9650 and make your reservation.

Finds church appealing

By WINIFRED SMITH
Herald Correspondent

BALLINAFAD - It seems that the village church appeals to many people.

Another duty which the minister had to perform Sunday was to call Mr. and Mrs. John Tooby to the front of the Sanctuary.

Rev. Bandy stated that the couple wished to have their membership transferred from the town church to the Ballinafad church.

Cement wall driver

Keys found in the ashtray of a truck allowed a thief to drive a '77 Chevy into a cement wall last week, causing about $600 worth of damage.

The incident happened Friday night on Mountainview Road North. The front end of the truck was smashed.
