Brampton clips Eagles' wings

A hot pitcher, untimely errors and too many walks spelled defeat for the Georgetown junior Eagles.

The locals dropped an

ball game of season By DEE DEE HAYNES

Herald Correspondent

In the first game of the Kinsmen Senior Girls Softball League season, ReMax slipped by Diet Centre by a stender 10-9 score. The duo of Cindy Kavanagh and Karen Doyle handled the pitching duties for ReMax while Cherl McElroy and Laura Richardson pitched for Diet Centre. Richardson and ReMax's Missy Anderson picked up the game star honors. In other senior action Young's Pharmacy drove their way to a 25-24 victory over Dunlop Insurance. Both teams received game star status. In the junior division, a strong North Hallon Sports beat Standard Products 27-17. North Halton's Tracey Morey and Tracy Green of Standard Products were selected to receive game star honors.

Brampton at the Fairvisitors put the game out of reach in their final grounds. However, the inning by adding six runs score is somewhat to their cause.

The Eagles didn't help themselves defensively as they made a total of seven errors in the game. As well, Eagles' pitchers walked eight visiting batters.

Brampton's Frank Facia recorded the win for the visitors as he allowed just four hits and fanned 14. Louis Galvao took the loss, going seven innings before giving way to Juan Mora, who in turn left the game for Mario Galvao in the final inning. The weather was dismal for the game as it rained in spots. But Georgetown manager Dan Guistini said the weather couldn't be blamed for his team's

"It rained for both teams," he said.

Brampton scored three runs in the second inning before Georgetown got on the board in their half of the fourth inning. The visitors added single tallies in the seventh and eighth frames before scoring their final six runs in the ninth inning to ice the game.

Guistini was impressed with pitcher Facia. The Brampton, hurler struck out the final five Georgetown batters he faced in the game.

"He Just pitched a great game," Guistini said.

The Georgetown manager added he was somewhat surprised with the number of errors his club has made so far this year.

DAN GUISTINI "It's mainly due to our inexperience though," he sald. "I think there the rookies to come around." A total of seven firstyear players saw action in Saturday's game.

"We played seven really good innings of baseball," he said. "If we'can stay in there with our pitching, I feel we can be real competitive," he said.

Georgetown had a good opportunity at notching its first win of the year when the team was to play in Brampton Sunday. However, the weather was once again rainy, and the contest was postponed.

"The kid who was supposed to pitch in that game we've hit well," Guistini said.

It is still early in the season, and Guistim said he isn't ready to press the pame button yet. He still has a few pitchers to look at yet he said. "I haven't had a chance to work with Paul Guistim and Brad Youmans yet, and I've heard about a farmer Georgetown native who played with Brampton and has expressed an interest in coming back." Guistini

Big innings enable Jays to record powderpuff win

Blue Jays 19 - Red Foxes 13

Blue Jays' collection of 10 runs in the second inning and another six runs in the sixth inning were sufficient to contain the Red Foxes. June Ford, Sherri Louth, Mary Johnston and Ellen McGowan all went three-for-three for the birds. Foxes Cathy Milne, Wendy Fisher, Alice Edgar and Joy Thompson connected for the losing side.

Golden Gloves 16 - Dingbats 3 A combined team effort by the Gloves was the key element in this contest. Fine hitting was displayed by Judy Gibson, Betty Kirby, Anne Puckering, Donna Sproule and Monica Mastalerz (great smack to the fence), and steady pitching assisted in this win. Highpoints for Dingbats came about midway through the game with notable fielding and catches by Sue Martin and Phyllis Mercer. Mercer also hit an outstanding triple.

A pair of Limehouse Inter-Plant Slowpitch League teams fell from the ranks of the undefeated this week.

North Halton Sports handed Chalmer's Esso their first loss of the year 18-8 while Referee's Association dumped DRG 15-11. Both clubs had 3-0 records before action this week.

In their win over Chalmer's, North Halton got home runs from Paul Martin and Henry King. Bob Morrow had the lone home run for Chalmer's.

Jeff Sargent and Al Hay hit homers to pace Referee's Association over DRG. Shane Lefebyre hit a home run for the DRG team.

In other games, Mike Schultz and Lloyd Sheppard had home runs to pace Midas Muffler over Smith and Stone 18-8.

In the closest game of the day, Labelmaster's got by Radical's Car Club 9-7 as Mike tuck had a homer for the winners. Ian Crichton had a homer for Radi-in the home run department, Jim Scarlett and Al Hay are-tied for the lead with five each. Dave Majury, Ron Nash, Mike Buck and Jim Massena are one Tumbler 15 - Purple Power 10

Strong batting by Tumblers which consisted of 11 runs in the fourth inning clinched this match. Janis Pomeroy, Pat Morey and Diana Tripp possessed the hot bats. Powers' Marge Snow and Connie Darling went three-for-three for the night. Grey Lightning 5 - Don's Flock 0

Brilliant pitching by the Dynamic due of Doreen Dubbins and Sandy Marshall earned the Lightnings the league's first shutout of the year. Lesley Scarlett made a super catch when called upon. Flock's Diane Saunders and Judy Faulhafer reached base but were stranded by a strong defensive corps.

Pink Ladies 22 - Smurfettes 19

Sylvie Washbourne's great hitting led her team to an exciting win together with excellent catches in right field by Linda Perkins. Smurfettes' Darlene Bisschop hit well and Gloria Sinclair smothered the ball expertly at shortstop. Despite the outcome, Papa Smurf felt the team attempted a good comeback.

Black Sheep 24 - Burgandy Bulldogs 9 Homeruns by Sheeps' Kim Kirk and Tammy Lockwood, along with triples by Leanne Hall, Bev Daguano, Janet Mather and Sylvia Murphy guided a balanced attack to a big win. Robin Richardson and Dianne Quenneville combined hits, batting three-for-three and arriving safely at home for the Bulldogs.
