Baseball latest sport for Rebels

Herald Staff
Let's Play Ball is the battle cry of the newest sports team at Georgetown District High School.

A Rebel baseball team now represents the school and they played their first game, a 5-5 tie against Burlington Central High School last week.

Playing overall sound ball and supported by fine pitching by Rod Wilson, the Georgetown squad stayed in the game right from the beginning.

The lead see-sawed back and forth and Georgetown took advantage of some clutch hitting, said co-coach George Paradis.

Jay Anderson rallied for the Rebels by going 3 for 4 at the plate. Joe Money Penny and Mike Lorito were both 2 for 4 with a double.

The team also played Monday in Burlington against Nelson and they will have a match-up against another Burlington squad, Pearson High School Friday.

The games are all exhibition contests because there is no official league in the region. Georgetown would like to set their goals for a league to play in against other Halton high schools, or perhaps play in a north Halton division.

The idea for starting a baseball team came from teacher Rick Redshaw who came from the Burlington area where teams play in a Hamilton high school league.

However, when the Hamilton teachers went on a work-to-rule and then a strike, the Burlington baseball teams were looking for games to play.

Mr. Redshaw talked to some avid baseball players and fellow teacher George Paradis to see if they would be interested in putting together a squad.

The Rebels so far have held about five practices. The season will end for them by June 1, the first week of exams, but the team hopes to play five exhibition games.

Hopefully two tournaments can be played that Georgetown ball players from the high school can enter, Mr. Paradis said.

The team will practise two nights a week until the end of the season.

Members of the team are: Joe Money Penny, Rod Wilson, Chuck Peebles, Louis Galvao, Scot Farley, Dan Hall, Darren Kemp, Owen Gray, Jay Anderson, Mike Lorito, Neil Sivertson and Kevin Hughes.

Ladies grid loop officially begins

Herald Special

Georgetown Ladies Flag Football League kicked off the second season Sunday under rainy skies. The league has expanded this year adding Royal LePage and Peel County Bandits to the roster. If you want to catch the action, come out to Irwin Dorsey Field each Sunday, with the first game starting at 9 a.m.

Diet Centre and North Halton Sports started the day while it was still dry. Diet Centre dominated the scoring with two touchdowns by Pam Anderson, a single major from Barb McKeenan and a two-point conversion by Jane McIntyre. North Halton Sports' Cathy Milne came up with a "breath-taking" interception. The final score was 20-0 for Diet Centre. Game stars were Jennie Thompson (DC) and Milne (NH).

Peel County Bandits and Work That Body went head-to-head in Game Two. The score was tied 6-6 at the end of the half as Sue Kruk (WTB) and Tracy Klavkals (PCB) had the majors. Work That Body wrapped it up with a fourth-quarter pitchout to Natalia Pacheco. Final score was 12-6 for Work That Body. Klavkals (PCB) and Pacheco (WTB) were the game stars.

King Submarine and J.V. Jets saw a lot of action in the first quarter of their game with King leading 12-7. Karen Pemberton and Kathy Waters scored for King while Sherri Diegle had the major for Jets as Janet Mathers added the convert. The Jets came back strong in the second half as they won 19-12. Linda Ferguson (JV) and Cathy Dobson (KS) were the game stars.

The final game of the day pitted Royal LePage against Thruway Muffler. Thruway opened the scoring with a 25-yard pass from Monica Mastalerz to Janice Murray. Battling the weather, Royal LePage put up a good fight with an interception by Dianne Stone. Final score was 6-0 for Thruway. Murray (TM) and Stone (RL) were the game stars.

Despite the wet start, it appears the league is in for an action-packed season.

Mixed league ties Bramalea

In Intercounty Mixed League B action May 21 Gordon Alcott tied with Bramalea 2-2.

John Rice and Keith King put on a winning performance with a record of 3-6, 6-3 and 7-5. Kay King and John Dullison went the distance to defeat their opponents 7-5, 0-6 and 6-4.

Larry Sisnett and Ed Reiger went down to defeat 4-6 and 2-6 while Paul Mastalerz and Bruce Payne hit the showers early after 3-6 and 4-6 losses.

Linda Rice and Brenda Sisnett went three games but were downed 6-7, 6-2 and 5-7.

The Mixed B league plays their next home game May 28 against Brampton.
