Teacher Betty honored for helping students

Betty Tamas, co-ordinator of the Georgetown District High School co-operative program was honored by her peers Thursday. Teachers from the high school presented her with a bouquet of flowers and students in the co-op program gave her a rousing applause. Mrs. Tamas has developed the Georgetown co-op program into the largest of its kind out of all the Halton secondary schools. Next year she will be heading up the business department at the high school.
