

Want to go on a pleasure cruise? The Halton Hills Arts Council invite you to join their holiday June 21 and 22 at Sacre Coeur Hall on Georgetown's Guelph Street. It'll be their sixth year putting on a cabaret of music, jokes and skits, with talented members like (left to right) Jack Ferguson, John Barrett, Ralph Ursel, Joe DeGuidice, George Mitchell and (centre) Jan Hillier.

Summerfest theatre brings 'Holidaze' to our downtown

By PAT HRETCHKA

Get ready for a good time. Summerfest is on its way. This is the Halton Hills Arts Council's contribution to Pioneer Days.

If you like music and laughter and old fashioned fun, this is the event for you.

As usual you will partake of a delicious light meal, and then be royally entertained. This year the theme of the cabaret is "Holidaze".

Many talented people are already at work putting the show together.

The cost of a ticket is $10 and you can phone for reservations at 877-4078.

There will be two performances June 21 and June 22 at Sacre Coeur Hall. The doors will open at 6 p.m. That's your chance to get settled at a table, perhaps purchase some liquid refreshments and socialize. The meal will be served at 7 p.m. and showtime is 8:15 p.m.

Those of you who have attended in the past do not require any selling on this event.

You know how much fun it is. Who could ever forget "Chief Shaking Spear" and that wonderful nostalgia trip to wartime England?

This year's edition promises to be just as memorable and just as much fun. So don't sit alone in your room.

Do as the song says and "Come to the Cabaret"

Circus-like entertainment for 3 days

With all the featured entertainment you'd think downtown Georgetown is under the Big Top.

Pioneer Days always has a circus-like atmosphere where people can wander around and enjoy the various acts, displays and entertainment available.

If you're a dance buff, the Pine Valley Squares are around Friday from 7:30 p.m. You can be part of a street dance Friday and Saturday nights downtown from 8:30 - 12 midnight.

For the music lovers Iva Davidson and the Ivatones are playing Saturday from 9 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. downtown while organist Paul Barber is featured each of the three days at selected times.

The Halton Regional Police Chorus sing away Thursday night at 7 p.m. To quench your thirst the beer garden on Main and Mill Streets is a favorite.

Eating is always a treat during Pioneer Days. There will be a variety of House specialities at downtown restaurants. The Lions Club have a pancake breakfast planned for Saturday starting at 9 a.m.

WHAT'S ON

Knox Church food booth

The Knox Presbyterian Church Food Booth will be selling a variety of items with all proceeds going to the tornado relief fund. Inside Knox Church you can forget your diet and try some of the ladies' strawberry shortcake. It shouldn't be missed!

Seniors ride for discount

Seniors will have an added incentive to make the trip down to Pioneer Days June 20-22. If a senior citizen wants a taxi ride to the festivities, they can call 877-9311 and they'll receive a 20 per cent discount.

The offer is good from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. each of the three days. A 20 per cent discount also applies to a ride directly home after viewing the sights at Pioneer Days.
