What do you like about Canada?

Mulroney appointments not all partisan: MP

Dear Sir,
A recent report on Global TV left the impression that Conservative MPs were "scratching their heads" to identify non-partisan Government appointments other than those of Ambassadors Stephen Lewis and former Commons Speaker, Lloyd Francis.
The TV report was apparently based on information and documentation supplied by Mr. Don Boudria, M.P. which, I think, at least deserves some scrutiny by the public. The fact that Mr. Boudria lists the Honourable John Bosley, Speaker of the House of Commons, as our Number One patronage appointment should tell you something about the quality of his research.
He alleges that approximately 1,000 Order-in-Council appointments have been made since September and concludes they have been all of a partisan nature. Let me give you a few facts about some Order-in-Council appointments which should indicate the extent to which Mr. Boudria has been purveying gravely misleading information to the media and to the public.

Honourable J.J. Blais and Paule Gauthier, Quebec President of the Canadian Bar Association, were appointed to the Canadian Security Intelligence Agency.
8. The Registrar of the Supreme Court, the Clerk Assistant of the House and the Dominion Archivist were all appointed by Order-in-Council.
9. Each member of the household staff at the Prime Minister's residence was appointed by Order-in-Council. I gather Mr. Boudria included these employees in his head count.
May I list at random a few dozen, other high-profile Order-in-Council appointees of great repute who either belong to the NDP or Liberal parties or who have no known political affiliation:
1. Mr. Gerald Laforest, Justice Supreme Court of Canada
2. Dr. Paul David, Senator
3. Mr. Richard J. Doyle, Senator
4. Ms. Sylvia Gold, Chairperson, Advisory Committee on Status of Women

5. Mrs. Helene Bailargeon-Cote, Citizenship Court Judge
6. Mrs. Pierre Laporte, Citizenship Court Judge

Looking for adopted siblings

Dear Sir,
I am writing to you to ask you for help through your newspaper. Could you please print my article in your newspaper since many people in your area read your paper that knew my family.
My name is David Ralph Bouskill. I was separated over 28 years ago. I came from a family of seven children before I was adopted out through the Halton County Children Aid Society. Within the last three years, once I found out my name, I have been doing a lot of research.
I have successfully located some of my family. Still missing are Betty Louise Bouskill, born September 1955 and adopted out by a family in September 1959. Last known was that Betty was and lived in Terra Cotta area. Also, Kenneth Wayne Bouskill born March 1957 and adopted out in January 1959, was believed to be in Woodbridge or Georgetown area. We were born and raised in the area of Georgetown, Milton, Brampton, Peel and Halton County.

I would very much like to find my sister and brother, to know if they are alive and well. We had a sister named Clare Phyllis Bouskill who was killed October 13, 1960 and buried in Georgetown Cemetery. I don't want to hurt your adopted parents but I do remember you both and would like to know if you are alive and well.
Also, if possible to see you both soon. A lot of the family comes from Georgetown area and hopefully somebody who knows my family will read the article and will be able to help me.
I am also working on my Family Tree and would appreciate anybody knowing any back history of the Bouskill family. If they could contact me at the address below.
Thanking you in advance for your time and help.

A stop for Duncan?

By MAGGIE HANNAH Herald Special
Town staff will add Duncan Drive to their list of streets needing traffic studies to determine the need for a three-way stop after a petition was received by council Monday.
The petition asked council to look at a stop at the intersection of Duncan and Mountry Crescent as a means of slowing traffic on the street.
Duncan has two schools on it and the new homes at the rear of the plaza are bound to increase traffic on the street, residents feel.

Ward 4 Coun. Harry Levy said residents had originally questioned the need for a four-way stop at the corner of Duncan and Sinclair Avenue because one of the streets in the new development will exit onto Sinclair at that point and there is a school on that corner.
Staff has already been asked to investigate the need for stop signs in a number of locations throughout the town and council was told reports on the study may not be completed before the fall.

Thanks for walk-a-thon support

Dear Sir,
The members of the North Halton District Centre would like to thank all those who contributed their time and energy to make Sunday's Walk-a-thon a success.
A hearty congratulations is due to all those who completed the full 10 km and we wish to express our appreciation to everyone who made a financial contribution to support their efforts in raising money for a vital community service.
Dairy Queen willingly provided free cups and drinks for the walkers and we are grateful for this generous contribution.

A special thanks is extended to John McDonald who not only made the walk an enjoyable learning experience but also collected pledges in support of the Centre, as well.
Sincerely,
North Halton District Centre

Emergency plan

A revision of Halton's current peacetime emergency plan is in its final stages and expected to be presented to regional councillors this summer.
Comments on the final draft were expected by Monday. As soon as possible after the regional plan is accepted, it'll be put into practice as an exercise.
This September, regional staff, the Red Cross and other volunteer services will hold a social services emergency plan exercise.

Monarchial heritage 'slipping away'

Dear Sir,
With the election of a federal government which has an obvious respect for and understanding of the advantages of the Constitutional Monarchy for Canadians, the time has come to undo the republican moves of the Trudeau era, and to effect a 'restoration' of the Crown in Canada.
Such a restoration should include both symbolic and substantive measures. For instance, the Post Office should proudly make available a wide number of Royal stamp issues; 'God Save the Queen' should be made the Royal Anthem by law, rather than resting on custom as is now the case; the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Edinburgh should be accorded their rightful places within the Canadian Honours System; the Mismere 'head of State' should no longer be applied to the Governor General, who is of course the representative of Canada's Sovereign, the Queen.

The Monarchist League of Canada has prepared a detailed and easy-to-read set of proposals which we hope Canadians will consider, and in turn, urge their Provincial and Federal Members of Parliament to advocate. Citizens reading this document will, we think, be alarmed at how much of our monarchial heritage has slipped away, and will want to press Mr. Mulroney's Ministers to begin the process of backing up their loyal words with actions undoubtedly supported by most Canadians.
The League will be delighted to send one or more copies of its position paper to anyone who writes - The Monarchist League of Canada, 2 Wedgewood Crescent, Ottawa, Ontario K1B 4B4.

Yours faithfully,
John L. Aimers, Dominion Chairman and Founder
