

Teaching our youth

By WINIFRED SMITH
Herald Correspondent
BALLINAFAD—Hellen and Rene Schwarz are both away at the United Church camp at Sparrow Lake.

Hellen is teaching the young counsellors in training and Rene is a counsellor at the camp this year.

He will be returning to Guelph University in September. Hellen graduated from there, in January, receiving her B.A. She will be accepting a teaching position in the fall.

Onwards to high school

British history are Ms. Campbell's fascinations, she said.

Before Ann Campbell flies to Europe, she will be helping a wine importer friend in Kingston place and record orders. Bnyuls is in the Roussillon wine district. It is the home of a type of aperitif now available in Ontario thanks to Ann's friend, its only importer.

Trip artists dream for

Herald Staff
After working 20 years as a commercial artist, 19 years teaching art at Georgetown District High School, and raising five children, Terry McDonald is finally taking the trip every artist dreams of.

Terry McDonald plans to paint all along the east coast, starting in the Maritimes, then down through to Texas. Such a tour will take more than two months. He will be off until the beginning of February 1986.

"Taxpayers will be glad to know this is a leave without pay," says Mr. McDonald.

"This is the first time I'm going without any commitment. I've always had to get back. It's the first time I've had a nomad attitude," he said.

"It's not a sabbatical but it is for me. What you do reflects in your teaching," said Mr. McDonald.

He plans to learn from the artists he meets and by practising his own skills. Art courses are also part of his plan.

He will be living in a trailer and "selling the odd painting on the spot." Mr. McDonald said. "Tourists are always looking around. Kids pull at your pants, cows lick the back of your head. You sell paintings because they (the tourists) have been there."

Mr. McDonald chose the east coast because he has "the sea in my blood," he said. "The east coast is closer. I like boats, ships, water, rocks. It's real nature," he said. "I'd also like to hit the baseball parks, see the Jays beat the Red Sox at home," he said.

"If it works out it might be worth making a living as a nomad," the teacher said.
