In GBHA, O'Tooles gets dumped 4-1

Six games were played in the Georgetown Ball Hockey Association playoffs recently.

O'Henry's downed Calvert Dale 5-2, while Nick Martino did the same to O'Tooles, with a score of 4-1. Huttonville won its game against Gemini Maintenance 4-2, as did

Dave's Service against Pompei Pizzeria. A score of 5-0 was tallied against Dutch Exports by Royal Pizza. Despite a valiant try, Animal Control was beaten 6-3 by Exchange House.

Paul Sheppard had two goals to lead O'Henry's to a 5-2 win over Calvert Dale Homes last week. Scoring for O'Henry's was Dan Boonstra, Mike Roberts and Richard Boersma. Scoring for Calvert Dale was Mike Murry and Tim Panabaker.

O'Tooles got dumped by Nick Martino Motors 4-1 with goals by Paul Basha with two, Phil Wickens and Andrew Hack added singles for Nicks, while L. Peterson got the goal for O'Tooles.

Huttonville just got by Gemini Maintenance by 4-2 with a late goal by Neil Adamson and another early in the game. The other scorers for Huttonville was Mosa Ferri and Brian Cleave. Scoring for Gemini was Mike Green and Steve Wolfenberg.

Royal Pizza dumped the Dutch Exports 5-0. Glen Baker and Todd Gull both scored pairs to lead Royal with the single going to Howie Oram.

Enthusiasm inspiring

Not one offside. Not one foul. Not one complaint. Not one moment of ill feeling. Was there a referee on the field? Not one disputed decision. Utopia? Reality?

Indeed, this was reality. At Cedarvale last Wednesday as the Ancient Mariners, past, present and guests played an exhibition game reminiscent of the Mariners at their effervescent best showed how the game could be played in the best of spirit and endeavour and friendly competition. Enthusiasm abounded throughout, skills trying their best, no matter what - there are no superlatives to describe this game.

Out from the past great Mariner teams came Stu Robbins, Gary Spiller, Geo Baines, Colin Wilde, Ken Chapman, Bill Xanthios, John Borsten, Bill Innes, Ivan Bird, Archie Tannock, John DeVries, Doug Morris, Dave Fear, John Borsten, Alex Tough Sr., Keith Spiller, Andy Kirkpatrick, Dave Booth, Stu Baines, Danny Shields, Les Finsley, Dave Chapman, Alex Tough Jr., Rick Middaugh, Tim Davis, Dave 'Bird', Gerry Burgan, Dave Cornelius, Ian 'Tannock', Stu Baines and Steve Swinscoe and into the newest Mariners to carry on a tradition of skill, enthusiasm and endeavour no matter what.

There were some missing for one reason or another and that is unfortunate. They missed something by not being there, and the spectators who were present saw some great soccer played in good humour throughout. This is how the game can and should be played. It is without doubt the greatest game in the world, when played like this game was. More often than not, it is the people who spoil it all from time to time.

I must say I enjoyed myself immensely and completely rekindled my enthusiasm for the game. Yes, the game is O.K., it is the people in the game that spoil it now and again, not one foul, not one offside, not one complaint. Great!

Luc Bertrand 'refed' the game and was hardly called upon to make any serious decisions at all, which is how it should be folks.

It is a great pity that the game was not filmed or that there were not more out to watch, as a lesson could have been learned from this special first-ever match-up with Old Crocks and Ancient Mariners. My thanks to all who turned out for a superb night.

About the results - the red-blacks scored four 'offside' goals and the Whites hit the posts and bar three or four times.

JUNIOR FALCONS
After castigating (giving stick) the Junior Falcons a little last week the lads rebounded with two strong performances in beating Erin Mills away and Mississauga at home. I have not seen a team as well beaten in the end as the Mississauga side, by the final whistle. Then the lads went off to the Burlington Tournament on the weekend and although expected to do well they did not make it into the qualifying stages.

INTERCOUNTY PLAYOFFS
Meantime, the Inter County go into the playoffs this evening. Two hot games in town see Meteor Blue and White face each other at Meadow Glen at 6:30 p.m. and PAC host Varian at Dorsey at 6:30 p.m. Ajax have a night off and Mariners entertain Rangers 'B' at 8:45 p.m. at Cedarvale.

In last week's games White defeated Villa 'A' 3-1. Varian took an away win over Rangers 'B' 3-2, PAC a home win over Milton by 4-0 and Ajax managed a 3-3 tie at Villa 'B'. Butcher were recorded a 1-0 result over Rangers 'A' who with regret have notified the league that they will not be able to complete the season. Better to know now than turn up for games without opposition. Latino also have had a problem or two in getting their team out and Blue have not been able to arrange their last game with Latino so far. This has been the worst season for a few years for turnouts of players for some reason. The dedication seems not to be there for some.

WORLD CUP OPENER
Canada could only manage a tie with Costa Rica in the World Cup opener. They are now faced with an uphill task to take some points away against the same opposition and Honduras before returning to St. Johns for the final game against Honduras. The old story of not being able to score goals was the main factor in this one. I only managed to take in the last 10 minutes due to late arrival obviously and the team looked tired. The absence of regular top class matches was another factor although the Canada team seemed to be fitter.

It is noticeable that there was little publicity for the game from major media papers, 'telly' and radio, yet after the game, the incident has been given major prominence. The home fans were being goaded by a few Costa Rican flag waving supporters and it was inevitable that there would be retaliation.

That it was physical is lamentable and I question why the security and police would allow the visiting fans to parade in front of the noisiest home fans after the well publicized European incidents of recent months.

Corrigan gets its own back

By DUNSCALLEN
Herald Correspondent

Corrigan Instrument sharpened their scoring prowess this week by thrashing a dismal M and M Pro Sport squad 51-14. In other games O'Tooles was very nearly upset by Norval but came back to win 20-13. Dairy Queen edged IAS 19-14, North Halton humbled the Smoke Shop 25-11 and Peel County and the Longhorns played to a 15-15 tie.

CORRIGAN VS M AND M PRO SPORTS

Corrigan broke out of a minor scoring slump this week by crushing the rapidly sinking M and M team. The Pro Sports have been able to take solace in recent weeks from the fact that although they've been losing, they've been able to keep games close.

Not this one folks. Though only behind 14-7 at the half, M and M collapsed under a 37 point Corrigan barrage in the second half.

Paul Larose threw six touchdown passes and for a bit of variety scored one himself. Kevin Harrison and Brent Ferguson each scored a pair of TDs while Greig Daigle and Bob Bushell recorded two more. Kevin Harrison also kicked a last play field goal to push his team over the 50 point mark.

Only a pair of Mike Lord TDs saved M and M from total disgrace.

DAIRY QUEEN VS IAS

On any football team quarterback is by far the most important position. The performance of the normally formidable Queens without first string QB Mitch Leblanc has provided further confirmation of that fact. Last week, the Leblancless Queens lost to the surging North Halton Sports; this week they barely subdued IAS.

IAS led 14-11 heading into the fourth quarter on a pair of majors by Brian Pemberton. They were unable to score again however, and eventually yielded a game winning touchdown to Dairy Queen's Ron Lunn. Lunn was also responsible for DQ's only others TD.

Jeff Lockwood aided the Queen cause with a field goal and four singles. O'TOOLES VS NORVAL

Norval very nearly did what no others GFFL team has done in almost three years - beat a Rick Baldwin led O'Tooles squad.

The O'Tooles receivers played like rank amateurs treating the pigskin like it was contaminated by radioactive waste.

NORTH HALTON VS SMOKE SHOP

North Halton continued to play some of their best football ever, easily defeating a very ordinary looking Smokers team on Sunday.

Brad Ferguson, Bill Fournier and Mark Hamilton each scored North Halton majors. Hamilton also tallied a two point convert and Andy Tyrell chipped a field goal through the uprights.

North Halton's defence was particularly sharp as Jim Boulanger, Bill Fournier, Kevin Brown and Phil Bud intercepted Smokers passes.

The Smoke Shop struggled throughout and over three quarters could only muster a field goal off the foot of Doug Thompson. In the final frame Bruce Cartwright scored a TD and Werner Mikoleit a two point convert, but it was a case of far too little too late.

LONGHORNS VS PEEL COUNTY

With only three games remaining in the regular season schedule the Longhorns and Peel County gained a valuable point from this tie to assist their quest to avoid last place and playoff ineligibility.

The offences repeatedly misfired in a first half that ended 7-6 in favour of Peel County. Bruce Urch scored a TD for the Bandits, Jim Lindsay for the herd.

A hefty $3,000 raised by Fun Day Tournament

Herald Special
About $3,000 was raised through the Georgetown Post Office 10th annual Fun Day Tournament for the North

Halton Association for the Mentally Retarded. The Grand Champion of the tournament was the Random Car Club. Runner up was the Legion's Branch 120. In the first game, the Post Office scored 7 against the Sob's 6 points. In the second game, the Acton firemen beat out Halton Hills Police 16-5. It was a close third game between the Norval Oldtimers and the Radicals Car Club. The score was 5 to 4 for the Radicals. In the fourth game, the Legion's Branch 120 scored 14 to the Georgetown Hospital's 10, and in the fifth game, the Random Car Club won 17 to 9 over the Georgetown Firemen.

Cubs and Angels in finals

Round robin playoffs wound up last week with the headline result. The Mets and Tigers put up good fights too and will be in a consolation play-off on Aug. 28 at Harrison Public School.

Last week's scores were:
Casselman Fuels Angels 21 - Choice Air Cubs 33.
The Cubs stars of the week were Michael Armstrong, Kevin Humenicki and Jeff Moore. Paul Dallison also scored several runs.

Angels of note were Rob Doole, Jennifer Hunter, Michael McEnemy and Jamie Shell. Chris Corney made some key plays, especially in last week's tie with the Cubs.

For the Mets, Tommy Fischer, Dawn Ladds, Chandra Shail and Joshua Cluney have played well. Big contributions have been made by David Zeni and Scott Day too with Michael Walinga catching pop flies. The Tigers were so close to winning all year and their tie game was a heartbreaker. Karen Hannah and Leasa McDonald, have been strong defensively along with Sam Southworth. Jeff Pringle and Andy Kerslake have had booming bats.

WIPE OUT
The Referees Association beat out the Town of Halton Hills 10 to 2 in the sixth game, and in the seventh game, the Acton Firemen beat out the Post Office 12 to 7.

The Legion's Branch 120 won the eighth game with a score of 7 against the Radicals Car Club's 4 points.

Bob and Audrey claim tennis trophy

A smiling Bob and Audrey Houston received the silver mixed doubles tennis trophy Sunday afternoon after a hard game under gray skies. The Houstons won two of three games against finalists Isla Allison and Mike Hurley at the North Halton Golf and Country Club.

Herald Staff
In a close three sets of mixed doubles tennis, Bob and Audrey Houston beat out the team of Isla Allison and Mike Hurley Sunday afternoon, for the championship.

The Houston's of Terra Cotta won two of the three games, with scores of 7-5, 1-6 and 6-4.

The winning finalists received the silver trophy at the North Halton Golf and Country Club in Georgetown.

Winners of the mixed doubles tennis consolation finals were Larry and Brenda Sissett who beat out Don Hurley and Ann Kennedy with a score of 6-2 and 6-love Sunday.

Fourteen teams were entered in the North Halton mixed doubles championships.
