

Tykes advance to OBA 'B' semi-finals

Herald Special
The Georgetown Green Giants advanced to the semi-finals of the Ontario Baseball Association "B" championship in convincing fashion as they knocked off St. Mary's Hawks in two straight games.

Saturday in Georgetown, behind the strong pitching of Jeff Wright, the Giants took a one game lead as they downed the Hawks 8-2.

Wright helped his own cause at the plate with a single, double and triple in four attempts, driving in four runs.

Catcher David Vanderbyl played a strong game defensively as well as contributing two singles, a double and two RBIs.

Greg Dobbin scored 3 of the eight Georgetown runs as he went two for three with a walk.

Sunday, in St. Mary's, the Green Giants played probably their best game of the season as they trounced the Hawks 15-3.

Adam Poyntz went all the way on the mound allowing just one hit walking seven batters and striking out eight.

Sieve Wright led the team offensively as he went four for five and drove in three runs.

Kevin Latchford had a pair of triples in three plate appearances for 2 RBIs, while Jeff Pettigrew also drove in two runs with a triple.

Ryan Schirk, Marc St. Pierre, Jeff Wright and Vanderbyl also had 2 RBIs each.

Defensively, Ryan Pirie, Jason Ogden and Todd Fuller all came up with fine fielding plays. The fact the team put 23 runs across the plate in the two games was gratifying to coaches John Wright and Brian Poyntz.

In the Ladies Inter-county A League games, the Gordon Alcott team lost 3-1 in matches against York Old Mill Aug. 14.

However, the thing that pleased the coaches the most was the errorless ball played by the Giant in both games. Georgetown will now play Thorold in a best 2 out of 3 semi-final this weekend. The first game is in Thorold Saturday. The second and third game if necessary will be in Georgetown on Sunday.

The winner of this series will advance to the OBA "B" championship against either Wallaceburg or Tecumseh of Windsor.

downed JV Jets 9-0. Work That Body's major came early in the half by Kelly Cunningham and a convert by Jodi Jacobs. The rest of the game was a defensive contest with Natalie Pacheco (WTB) adding two singles to the score.

Work That Body had three interceptions - 2 by Donna Brown and one by Natalie Pacheco.

Game stars: Lorraine Brown (JVJ), Kelly Cunningham (WTB). North Halton Sports beat Peel County Bandits 8-6 - the two point convert making the difference.

North Halton scored early in the game with the major by Sandra Cousens and Joy Thompson getting the two pointer. Rhonda Brown got the major for Peel County in the second half but it was not enough for a victory.

Game stars: Donna Hamilton (NHS), Rhonda Brown (PCB).

Close games ended in Specters favor

Glen Williams ended their Intercounty Fastball League season with a pair of close wins last week.

The Specters scored a pair of 2-1 wins over Hornby in doubleheader plays Tuesday night at the Glen diamond. The wins give the Specters an overall record of 21 wins against seven losses.

In the opener, Mark Curtis pitched a one hitter and fanned 10 for the win. Andy Broadbent had a double and triple in three plate appearances offensively while Mickie Dewes went one-for-two and scored the other Specters' run.

Glen Williams scored single runs in the fourth and fifth innings while Hornby scored its lone run of the game in the sixth frame.

In the nightcap, Mow Curtis pitched the win for Glen Williams. Curtis allowed four hits and fanned 10. Broadbent and Dewes both had a pair of hits offensively.

Glen Williams got on the scoreboard in the sixth inning when Tim Field, pinch-running for Dewes scored on an infield hit by Rob Hatcher. Field was called safe at the plate.

Hornby came back to score their run in the seventh when Jamie Gilles tripled, and scored on a Dave Martin sacrifice fly. That forced the game to go into extra innings as the Specters were unable to score in their half of the inning.

Glen Williams notched the winner in the eighth frame when Glen Fendley reached first on an error and went to second on a Hatcher sacrifice bunt. Dave Doucette singled, moving Fendley to third. Len Jillard brought home the winning run with a single.

"It was satisfying beating Hornby," said Specters' manager Ted Wilkes. "They were last year's champs, and we were able to take all four games we played this season."

Last year Hornby downed Glen Williams for the league crown in seven games.

Lost last match of season their games by scores of 6-0 and 6-4.

However, losses in the other matches worked against Gordon Alcott.

Audrey Houston and Ann Kennedy lost 7-5 and 6-2 while Kay King and Linda Rice were defeated 6-2, 6-3.

Brenda Sisset and Marilyn Serjeantson were downed in their two sets by scores of 6-2, 6-3.

This was Gordon Alcott's last match for the season.
