Georgetown high pursuing excellence

By MONIQUE TOBIN

In the athletics, Georgetown is a very tough competitor and it was only fitting for the athletic banquet last year to have the theme "Pursuit of Excellence".

The swim team had a very successful year, despite difficult circumstances, with some very strong performances.

The track and field team was extremely successful, winning the Halton Championship, qualifying twenty-nine athletes for the South Region Championships, and from that meet qualified for OFSAA.

The cross-country team had an exceptional season. Georgetown cross-country even hosted this year's OFSAA meet, and did so with great success.

"A memorable highlight for the team was their trip to Gunderland, New York, where they displayed strong team spirit and good sportsmanship," said coaches Karen Cosgrove and Donna Metcalfe.

Success seems to be the story of last year's athletic season, and it looks as though this year's results could follow suit.

In your opinion

Question: Are you looking forward to get back to school?

GREG QUINN: "No I'm not. The summer hasn't been long enough for me, and I'm not ready for the work yet."

ANDREA McNEILLY: "Yes. I've heard a lot about the school and heard it's a lot of fun."

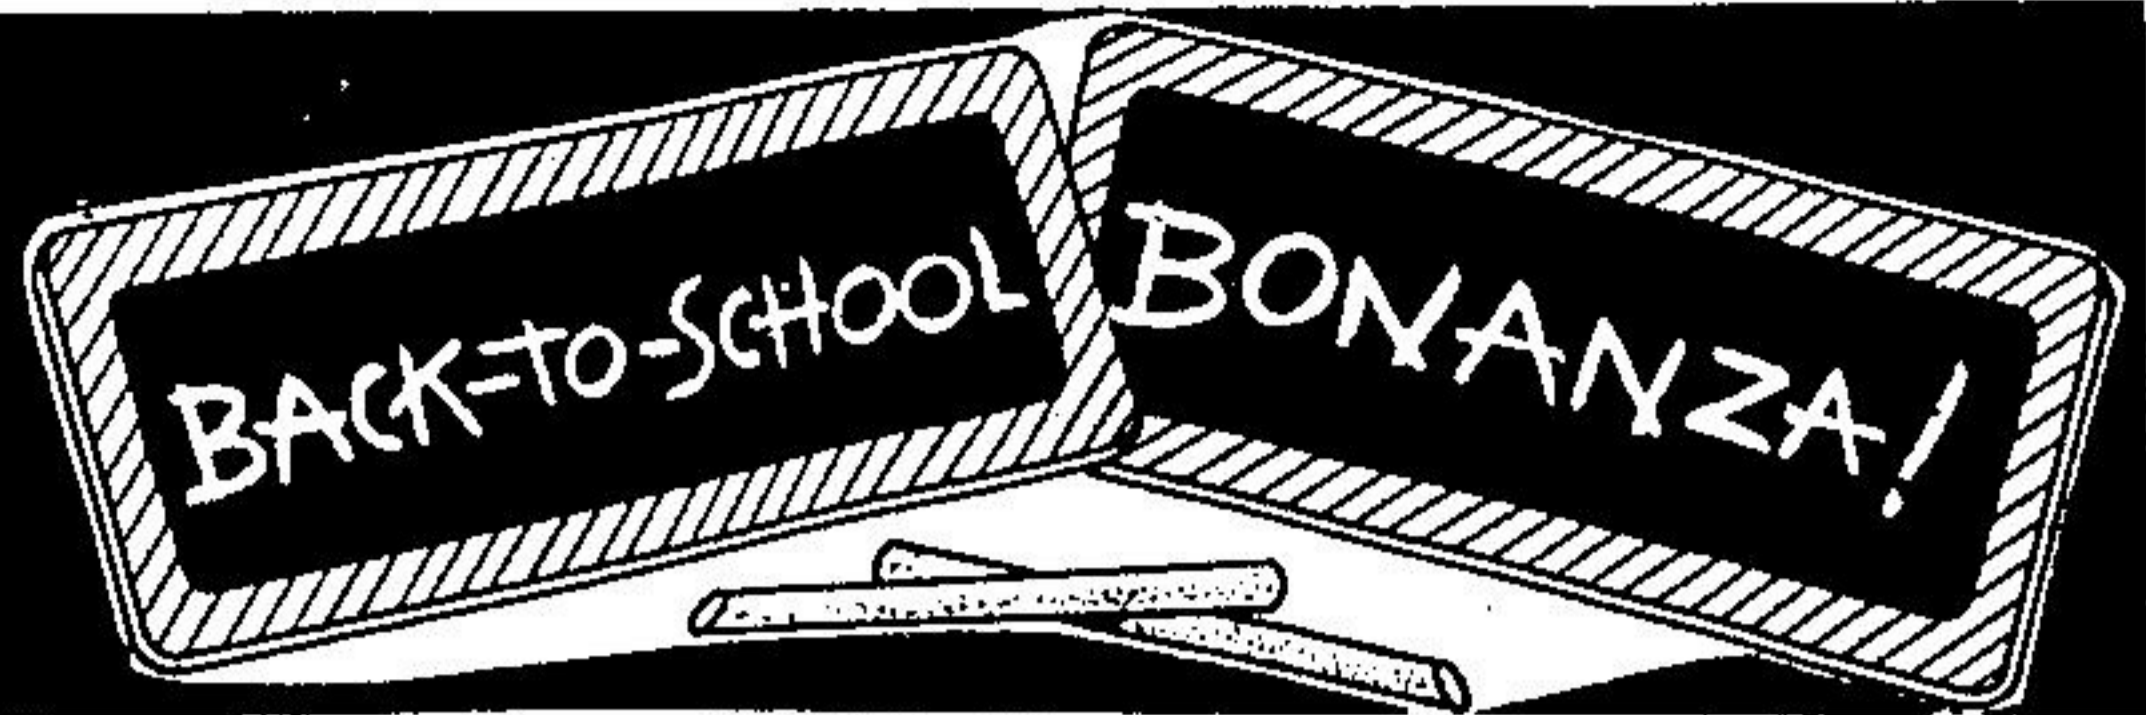

TRENT JENNINGS: "Sort of. I want to see my friends, but I'm not looking forward to it cause I gotta work."

GLENN EDWARDS: "I've had too much of a good time this summer, and school will put an end to some of the fun."

STEPANITAKAHASHI: "Not really. I'm looking forward to seeing friends but not looking forward to getting back to work."

MARCIA QUINN: "Ya, I'm looking forward to the new school and making lots of new friends."
