

What's fun Mondays?

Singing is enjoyable, relaxing, stimulating and fun. The Georgetown Chorus society welcomes you to join them Monday nights at 7:30 p.m. at Knox Presbyterian Church. The church is at the corner of Main and Church Streets, Georgetown.

Both serious and light music is rehearsed there for the many concerts the Society puts on through the year.

If you would like more information, please call Wilma Groskorth at 877-5759.

Lotte Zonnenberg is teaching a watercolor workshop for $13, Oct. 5.

The one-day workshop will cover transparency; use, value and combination when using colors. She'll give a short demonstration and individual instruction as participants require it.

Students must supply their own materials and a sketch or photograph from which to work.

Calligraphy, the art of writing beautifully is a popular course that is being taught by Wendy Buykes of Georgetown, Tuesdays, Sept. 24 to Oct. 29.

The $19 course looks at the historical development of various scripts and the tools and techniques required to create them. This time-honored craft isn't as difficult as it looks and will give you hours of relaxation.

CARDS

Learn to make your own greeting cards, invitations and, to the appreciation of your co-workers, may even improve your handwriting.

Linda Taras is teaching a beginner's course in low relief clay sculpture. The $40 course is directed towards the creation of wall hanging plaques, with designs incorporating human and landscape forms.

The student will develop skills in the creation of an illusion of the full three-dimensional form from a shallow form through the use of color and learn to perceive objects and groupings of forms that lend themselves to the rendering of relief.

CLAY

Clay and equipment are included in the fee. The course runs Thursday from Sept. 26 to Nov. 14.

If you've already taken a beginner's weaving course, you may be interested in the intermediate weaving course being offered by Jette van der Melden. She'll be teaching more advanced weaves like the overshot, Swedish lace, N's and O's, summer and winter log cabin. Drafting will also be covered. All materials are supplied in the $52 course. Jette is teaching Wednesdays from Sept. 25 to Nov. 27.

The Artisans are also offering a stained glass workshop which will teach the basics copper foil technique. You can expect to finish a simple light catcher in the first workshop, Oct. 19.

DECORATIONS

The second workshop will take on a more complicated project Oct. 26. The course fee is $29 includes all supplies.

Daisy Harris is teaching three workshops as the Christmas season approaches in how to make Christmas floral decorations with fresh and artificial materials.

The first workshop is Nov. 28 and Dec. 5, the second is Nov. 30, and the third is Dec. 7.

The first workshop costs $14.50 and the second and third cost $15.75.
