Georgetown Fall Fair

Hot entertainment--to match the weather

A little reluctantly, a Rock Ella Jersey cow climbed back into the trailer that brought it to the Georgetown fair. Goin' back home wasn't to its liking. The Hornby Jersey farm won four firsts in the competitions.

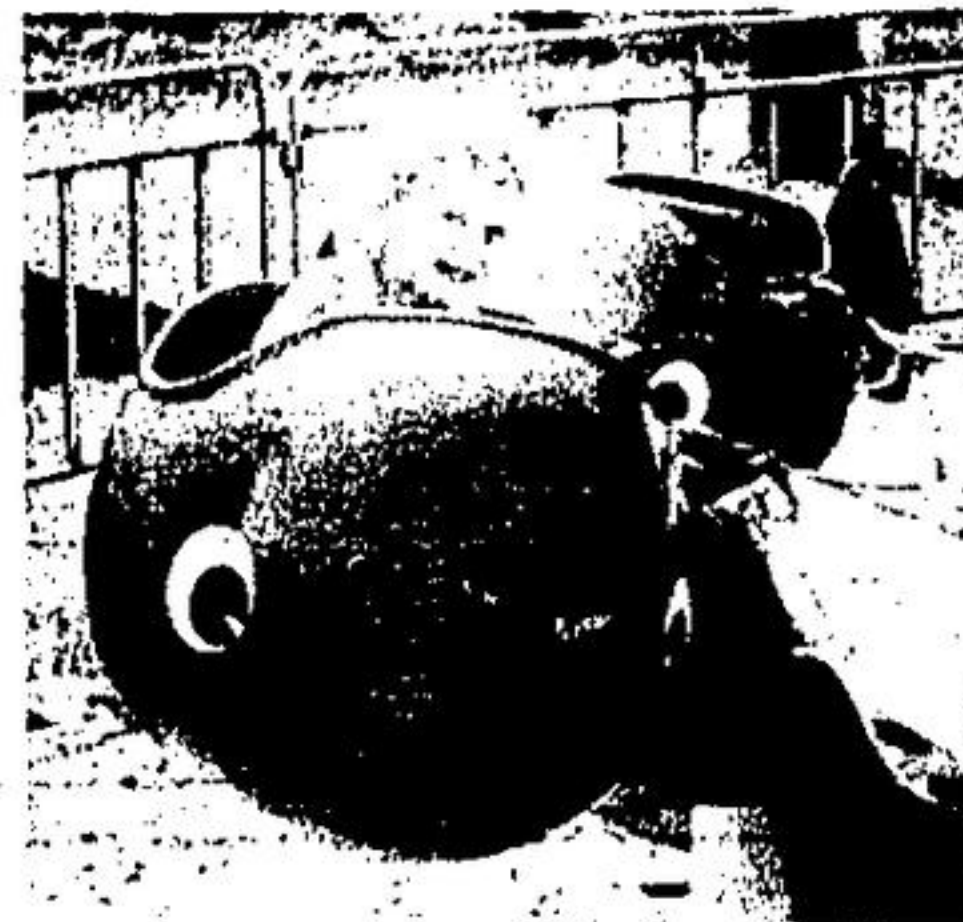

Safety was important at the Saturday night demolition derby in the Georgetown Fairgrounds. Drivers of the old wrecks taking part, weren't allowed to hit the driver's door of their competitors, and once sparks were spotted, had to stop.

Tracy Patterson, 10, of Mississauga sat astride mare "Lace Jacket" Saturday afternoon, watching activities at the Georgetown Fairgrounds.

Keeping a busy country beat were the Ontario Rhythm Cloggers Saturday afternoon. The dancers performed with smiles despite the humid heat of the day.

Amaranth Day isn't even three yet, but she's been tagged the wreckless one in the family. The blonde youngster was game for a ride on Bulgy at the Georgetown fall fair.

Mark Andrew Trumble, 3, of Georgetown, got a different look at the animals in Old McDonald's farm, thanks to his trendy red glasses, Saturday.

There was no question about it. The kiddles came for the rides. After all, what's more fun than twirling dangerously at breath-taking speed?

Who won the battle of the bands? Friday night at the Georgetown Fairgrounds teenagers tested the strength of their amps by rocking the night away in a fun music contest. In the end a draw was declared among the two entries. "Tempest" were one of the competing bands. Members are: Sean Cotton, Shane Oldrieve, Adam Broughton and Adam Bennett.
