Murder trial

A Georgetown man is on trial in Toronto accused of the fatal stabbing of a 53-year-old Scarborough father.

Daniel Hawman, 27, and Christopher Fraser, 26 of Toronto are charged with first-degree murder.

At the Ontario Supreme Court trial the prosecutor told the jury each of the accused blamed the other for the June 11, 1984, killing.

Court was told by Mr. Hawman that he stabbed the man because he had been swearing at him.

Constable Herb Foster testified that Mr. Hawman blamed the government for his poor economic conditions contributing to his state of mind.

Police officers hurt

Two police officers were hurt Saturday capturing an Acton man wanted by Peel Regional Police for theft. The 24-year-old man was seen by police at the Acton Fair Grounds.

He had a brief altercation with police and ran. The two officers who caught him suffered minor injuries to the head and knee. The fleeing man was charged with escaped custody.

$40 bike stolen

Thursday a bicycle left outside the Sit 'N' Bull pub and restaurant on Mill Street in Acton was stolen. It was worth $40.

An unlocked bike worth $200 was taken from the corner of Winston Churchill Boulevard and Highway 7 Friday morning.

A $100 bike left in the driveway of a Delrex Boulevard home was stolen Sunday.

Weapons charges

A Rockwood man had five charges laid against him after a dispute Sept. 10 with two others, one a Georgetown man who received a cut on the head from a rifle butt.

Police were called to a Lot 16 Concession 6 home in Rockwood after a firearm was discharged.

The Rockwood man was charged with weapons dangerous, pointing a firearm, assault level two, possession of stolen property and careless storage of a firearm.

Trustees angry about Representation changes

By SANDY CAMPBELL, Herald Staff
Trustees of the Halton Board of Education expressed anger and frustration when informed at Thursday's school board meeting that the trustee representation issue, thought finally settled, is at the drawing board again.

Regional Clerk David Varley was told by the Ministry of Education that the assessment factors he used to calculate trustee representation were not the factors the ministry wanted him to use.

assessment is based on the latest factors collected. And that factors used should be those from the election year.

problems over something as straightforward as trustee representation, but it happens every time."

The Regional Clerk used factors from July 13, 1985. The ministry would like re-calculations made using July 14, 1984 factors.

He pointed out to the minister of education that city-by-laws must be passed before Sept. 1, five days after orders to use 1984 factors were received by the school board.

But, regardless of his arguments the ministry's decision is final. Burlington will have seven trustees and Oakville will have five.

Mr. Varley said the ministry's decision is more embarrassing than inconvenient. "for such

The results of this request mean the loss of one public school trustee for Oakville, giving them five; and the gain of one trustee for Burlington, giving them seven. All other trustee seats are unaffected.
