Lions service day
Oct. 8 is Lion International's World Lions Service Day and over 1.3 million Lions worldwide from more than 36,000 Lions clubs will be serving their communities in unison.
Georgetown Lions will be helping senior citizens and handicapped people Oct. 5. On a first come first serve basis a team of Lions are ready to clean windows, basements, eaves troughs and yards; do minor painting and repairs, assist small moves, anything that isn't illegal.
For more information call Mr. Martin at 784-7088.

See leaves fall
After Labour Day, the Credit Valley Conservation Authority is offering senior citizens a discount of 50 per cent on weekday entry fees.
For only $2 per vehicle, you can enjoy the day at Belfountain, Terra Cotta, Monara, or Orangeville Reservoir Conservation Areas.
The fall season promises to bring out the most beautiful of fall colours at the conservation areas. There's plenty of picnic tables, barbecues, and open space at the conservation areas.
For more information, call 451-1615.

Bowling fund-raiser
With a successful bowling season behind them, the Georgetown Lawn Bowling Club is winding down for another year.
As part of the 'Five Club League' they have been competing in a number of tournaments. The ladies section hope to contribute to the upkeep of the greens with the proceeds of their annual bake sale combined with a garage sale and flea market.
There will be books and records, treasures of all sorts and baking Sept. 21 at the Log Cabin club house beginning at 10 a.m.
The location is at the corner of Edith and Williams Streets in the old section of Georgetown

Bride wore satin, chiffon sleeves

Herald Special
Wendy Ann Chaplin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chaplin, married Andre Bernar Parent, son of Mr. and Mrs. Omer Parent, June 15 at Holy Cross.
Both bride and groom are graduates of Georgetown District High School and plan to make their home in Georgetown.
Father Dave Cote performed the double ring ceremony and Winston Robinson played the organ. Earl Burt sang a solo.
The bride was dressed in a matt satin gown with chiffon sleeves and yoke, high lace neckline and sweetheart yoke. The sleeves were puffed and the skirt was full flowing with a train.
The hat had a side swept brim of chiffon with finger tip veil. Her bouquet was pink roses, white stephanotis and ivy. The groom wore a white tuxedo with tails.
Friend of the bride Gail Thompson was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were cousins Carolyn Watson, Janet Schwab, Leanne Burt and the bride's sister Denise Larocque. They were dressed in party length gowns of chiffon over satin with scooped neckline, and handkerchief hemline. Cousin Amanda Burke was the flower girl. She was dressed in white dotted swiss neckline with puffed sleeves and pink ribbon trim.
The groomsmen and ushers were dressed in silver grey tuxedos with tails. Keith Felton was the groomsmen, David Parent, Paul Chaplin, Marc Parent and David Chaplin were the ushers. Master usher and ring bearer Richard Larocque wore a white tuxedo with tails.

The reception was held at Holy Cross Parish Hall. Mrs. Henry Chaplin received the bride dressed in a long gown of blue with gem silk crepe, side swept bodice with boat neck, and rows of sparkle beads and long fitted sleeves.
The groom was received by Mrs. Omer Parent dressed in a gown of matt rose silk crepe with bows on the shoulders and elbow sleeves with silk lace cuff in V points. Mrs. Omer and Mrs. Parent wore orchid wrist corsages.
Showers for the bride were hosted by Joan Stennett, Carolyn and Lisa Watson, Cathy Parent, Gail Thompson, Ruth Fisher and Lois Graham, and fellow employees. A presentation to the groom was made by the groom's fellow employees.
The couple honeymooned in Northern Ontario. The bride's travelling costume was off white with a blue blouse and white accessories.
