Choir is back

By WINIFRED SMITH
Herald Correspondent
BALLINAFAD - It was nice to have the choir back after the summer recess. Under the direction of Mrs. Alyson Arsenault the choir sang the beautiful anthem Let There Be Peace on Earth and Let It Begin With Me.
The U.C.W. will meet at the church Sept. 24.

92 years in November

By WINIFRED SMITH
Herald Correspondent
BALLINAFAD - We extend sympathy to the Sinclair family and relatives who suffered a bereavement last week with the death of Mrs. Bessie McKennie.
Mrs. McKennie would have been 92 years of age in November. She was born in Ballinacorney and lived most of her life on the Ninth Line.
The last few years she has been living in a nursing home in Guelph. The funeral was Sept. 23 at Jones and Son Funeral Home.

Redcoat's came

By WINIFRED SMITH
Herald Correspondent
BALLINAFAD - There was much activity and excitement on the Eighth Line Wednesday Sept. 18 when the Eglinton and Caledon Hunt Club met at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Brian Buckrell.
It was a spectacular sight to see the red coated ladies and gentlemen mounted on their horses followed by the hounds as they made their way through fields and woods.

Baseball girls tops

By WINIFRED SMITH
Herald Correspondent
BALLINAFAD - Congratulations to the Ballinacorney girls baseball team.
Led by the fine pitching and hitting of Elaine Bouwman the village girls again finished first and won the playoffs in the Acton Ladies Recreational League.
Along with some fine defence and Kelly Scott's pitching, the girls won 13 games.
Other players on the team were: Vivian Bremner, Liz Dunn, Barb Case, Janice Gee, Jackie Hannivan, Anne Hayward, Angie Kennedy, June Longstreet, Vera Longstreet, Jean McCutcheon, Betty Soyka, Marnie Switzer, Bonnie Walker.

Lair contestants
