

Novices drop exhibition

Minor Novice Rep "AA" team travelled to Brampton Saturday for their first exhibition game of the season. Against league rivals, the eight-year-olds displayed fine positional play under a constant rally of shots. Goalie David Pearson frustrated the Brampton squad repeatedly topping his first game off with a well earned assist on a brilliant first come from behind goal by Brad Spears. Marc Boucher also assisted. Soon after, teammate David Kotsos scored, assisted by Alex Clarke and Timmy Diardichuk, a first time defenceman with obvious offensive talents. Brampton was not to be forgotten and tied the game soon after. The third period was one end to end rush for both sides with forwards Paul Sander, Robbie Monckton, David Boere, David Kalbarski, Andrew Eline-sky, continually testing Brampton's goalie. With agile defencemen, Trevor Williams, Sandy Davidson, Jeff Hewitt, Kevin Lumb, Georgetown stabilized Brampton's forceful attacks. Unfortunately, with seconds remaining the puck slipped in to end the game 3-2 for Brampton.

But both parents, coaches, Barry Mills, John Anderson and Rick Clarke agreed the red and black showed their undeniable contention for a tri-county championship team. The squad has been together since spring with several get-togethers to bond team and develop friendships alike. Two summer hockey games between fathers and sons, barbecues at the Mills and the Hewitt's were well attended and the Diardichuk pool made it through a team swim. Many thanks to our local entrepreneur from North Halton Sports, Chris Milne who captivated us with his talk and demonstration on equipment and hockey trivia. The next exhibition game is Sunday at 5 p.m. at Gordon Alcott Arena. Good luck minor novice "AA".
