

Faithful United Church member

By KAY WILSON
Herald Special
NORVAL - Norval district people were saddened to learn of the death of Mrs. Jim (Marjorie) Lagerquist, who passed away at Peel Memorial Hospital Oct. 16. Beloved wife of Jim Lagerquist, RR2 Norval and dear mother of Laurel (Mrs. Ray Fletcher) and Sam, both of British Columbia and Gus and Barbara.

She is survived by two grandchildren and sister Mrs. Lawrence (Mary Lou) Fines of Brampton, RR9 and daughter of the late Sam and Mae Shaw. Marjorie had been in ill health for some time and Rev. Walter Ridley in conducting the service, spoke of her as an exceptional person.

All who knew her, admired her for her faith of accepting life in sickness. She was a faithful member of Norval United Church and Unit 1. Funeral service was from the McKillop Costes Funeral Home, Brampton Oct. 18 at 2 p.m. with complete service in the chapel, followed by cremation.

Church elder Clarence Anderson

NORVAL - Clarence Anderson, a life long member and elder of Union Presbyterian Church, passed away Oct. 19 at the Joseph Brant Hospital, Burlington.

Besides his wife Eldred, he is survived by Ray, of Brampton, Donald of Nobleton, (Betty Jean) Carberry, Brampton RR4 and David of RR1 Terra Cotta. Loved by nine grandchildren and two sisters, Gertrude of Niagara Falls and (Mrs. Francis) Ruth Thompson, RR2 Georgetown.

He retired several years ago from their farm on Winston Churchill Boulevard north of Sideroad 22, which his son David now operates, to a new home beside Union Church. A funeral service was held from Union Church Oct. 22 at 2 p.m. Interment was in Union Church Cemetery.

Sympathy extended

NORVAL - Pinegrove Community Club were saddened to learn of the death of Mrs. Catherine Stringer, who passed away at the Halton Centennial Manor Sept. 20. Mrs. Stringer along with her late husband were members of our club when they farmed on the corner of the Eighth Line and Fifth Sideroad.

She was a member of Hillcrest Church and Ashgrove Women's Institute. Sincere sympathy is extended to her family.

Co-ordinate alcohol treatment priority

The Halton District Health Council announced the result of a study on alcoholism in Halton and the beginning of a study on mental health services in Halton. They also discussed the need for more chronic beds in Halton.

The Alcoholism Needs Assessment Study resolved that "co-ordination of Halton's alcohol treatment is a first priority." Better education, awareness and early identification must also be improved. A sub-committee on alcohol and addictions is planned to address these problems.

A project studying mental health services in Halton, identification, treatment and follow-up of affected children, was submitted to the ministries of health, community and social services.

The ministries and Carolyn Sherk Consultants began the six month study in October.

An accommodation study of the Health Council revealed that Halton is short 96 chronic beds. Today Burlington has 28 beds and Milton has 20. By 1986 Milton will have ten more and Oakville will open 42 beds.
