

Moms net puck win

By RITA DAVIDSON

The Minor Novice "Hockey Moms" team met Oakville at Memorial Sunday. Coaches Barry Mills, John Andrews and Rick Clark held a chalk talk prior to the game and besides reviewing their game plan with the eight year olds, they asked this young team to shoot more. They were looking for at least thirty shots. The challenge was accepted, with the red and black "Hockey Moms" jumping onto the ice with desire written all over their faces. They had come to play and play hard as early on in the first period Sandy Davidson beaded the puck up over centre to teammate Paul Sandifer who tallied the opener. Shot after shot boomed off Oakville's goalie with Jeff Hewitt, Robbie Monckton, Kevin Lamb delivering some fancy offensive maneuvers. Oakville tied and then went ahead but Scott Lahey, fore-checked and teamwork from linemate Monckton gave Tim Diardichuk the set up he needed to fire a sixler by a bedazzled Oakville goalie.

The game was tied and with minutes remaining in the second a precision squad combined with end-to-end passing play by David Kalbaraki to speedy Brad Spears to tally the go ahead winner. The third period was ALL Georgetown's, as the "Moms" continually head-manned the puck and displayed continuous offensive pressure on a hard pressed Oakville team that seemed surprised at our crisp passes, superb goaltending from David Pearson, and all our untiring players like Marc Boucher, David Kotsoo, Alex Clarke, Trevor Williams and Andrew Eliseaky. When the statisticians formulated their figures the Hockey Moms had won 3-2, defeated a top placed club and had handed their smiling coaches a shooting match of a game with a total of twenty seven shots, not bad for their first try. Watch them overcome the thirty shot mark on Sunday against an unknown squad with the guarantee you'll see exciting hockey.
