

Bantams
hard

Hard work and determination resulted in some excellent hockey for the A.F. Johnson and Associates Bantam II's this week. They dropped two very close matches and had Burlington come from behind to tie their last game.

Thursday the locals hosted Milton and put a lot of pressure on their visitors. The normally high scoring green and yellow were held to a mere 2 goals and lucky to get those. Both teams' defence played well but Georgetown's offence could not connect on their scoring chances.

Skyway Arena - Burlington was the scene of another excellent game, which saw the hosts take a fortunate 3-2 win. After a scoreless first period, Burlington netted three unanswered goals in the second to take what appeared to be a solid lead. But Georgetown put the blue and orange into a state of shock in the third when they tallied twice in fourteen seconds and threatened to tie the game. David Gardner scored unassisted at 7:44. Daryl Sproule and Gardner set up Matthew Remedios for the second at 7:50. Georgetown came very close on two or three rushes but could not tie. Johnny Stefan had an excellent game making several saves that had Burlington shaking their heads in disbelief.

The Bantams' best game of the year was played at home to Burlington

Saturday. This time it was Scott Compton's turn to dazzle the opposition.

The locals carried the play from the opening face-off. After a scoreless first period Glenn Mulder gave Georgetown the lead at 7:37 of the second with assists from Darren Lang and Kirk Serjeantson. This held until 2:10 when Burlington scored the equalizer. The third period was scoreless.
