Locals play exciting hockey

Georgetown Firefighters-McNally Construction major atom "AA" hosted the Flamboro team to a rough and tumble game which resulted in a closely matched aggressive 3 periods of hockey. Playing shorthanded coach McCarthy juggled the lines which resulted in lots of action at the bench as players were being pulled off the ice by their shirt tails as others were flying over the boards. Fans were given an excellent game of hockey as action moved end to end.

Victory, Victory, Victory, was in store for the black and red as they

Adult skiing

Here is your chance to learn or improve your skiing abilities. Every Monday evening for 8 weeks beginning Jan. 6, adults from Halton Hills will be meeting at the Glen Eden Ski Area for an evening of instruction and skiing. Each lesson is one hour in length followed by free time for recreational skiing. The cost is only $70 and ski equipment rentals are available at a cost of $7 per use. For more information call 877-5185 ext. 260. Gift certificates are available.

SWAP -- THEN SKI!

If you haven't got ski fever yet, with all the white fluff stuff about, the sight of these girls may be enough to attract you to the hills and dales. From the front, seen here are: Kim Dryden, Whitney Greig, Karen Pepper and Allison Vale. These teens are representing the Georgetown District High School Student Athletic Association.

The Association is planning a ski swap at the high school Dec. 7 from 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. Tomorrow and Friday the school will be accepting cross country and alpine skis which they will help you sell. Drop off your skis or ski equipment and clothes 8 a.m. - 2 a.m. or 3 p.m. - 8 p.m. both days at the cafeteria. (Herald photo)

Hockey Moms flat in loss

By RITA DAVIDSON
Herald Correspondent

It just wasn't the "Hockey Moms" day Sunday as they went down to defeat at the hands of the Streetsville novices.

The 5-1 defeat was the first in a while for the locals, but hopefully gets it out of their system for when league play resumes Sunday at 4 p.m. against Flamboro at Memorial Arena. Also the team has a tournament planned next for Orillia.

It would be difficult to compliment very many of our lads but honorable mention must go to some very hard achievers.

Robbie Monckton played outstanding on left wing. The line of Brad "Spike" Spears, Alec "Missing" Clarke and David "Bones" Kalbariski combined for our one beautiful goal. Scott Lahey with David "Wheels" Boere worked at producing many of the few shots on net. To all these lads a big "cheer" for those moments of excitement.

One final comment to say we're thinking "Get Well" thoughts to fellow teammate Marc "Boo Boo" Boucher, who is out of hospital and hopefully back to his old self for the next game.

Centennial charges way to volleyball title

The Centennial girls' volleyball team captured their sixth successive North Halton title on Tuesday at Acton High School.

The Centennial squad was up against perennial rivals Sam Sherratt of Milton. Although Centennial had defeated the Sherratt team in league play, the Milton squad had defeated Centennial on two occasions in tournaments. In the championship match the Chargers from Centennial took charge by playing good defence and going on the attack whenever possible. The Chargers captured the

Disallowed goals haunt Hand H team

H and H Video Pee Wee A's met Ancaster last Monday in their first match up this season. Georgetown scored three goals in the first five minutes, only to have two disallowed on delayed penalties to Ancaster.

And so the game went, with 56 minutes in penalties between both teams, causing both coaches to sit out the next game.

In spite of the stranglehold Ancaster referees had on the game, both teams played well. Ancaster came out on top by 2-1. Georgetown goal by Mark Lorio from Rick Bond.

In front of a home town crowd, the H and H Video Pee Wees did battle with their arch rivals Erin Thursday.

Erin tallied a 6-2 win over the locals. Georgetown had its best showing against this team so far, and finally held their own in the physical game. Sharp passing and lots of hustle kept Georgetown in the game for two periods. Momentary lapses in attempting to break out cost us three goals.

Georgetown goals by Kevin Barron from Chris Lush, and Mark Lorio from Steven Klein.
