

Selects tie Brampton 3-3

Going out of town Tuesday night the Halton Hills Tire Centre minor atom selects played an exhibition match with Brampton which ended in a 3-3 tie.

These two very evenly matched teams entertained with continuous end-to-end rushes. Brampton opened the scoring with two quick goals. Matt Deruchie scored first for Georgetown with an assist to Ryan Brain. Jason Walker tied the game midway through the second period, only to have Brampton connect once more and go ahead 3-2.

Georgetown pressed throughout the third period and were finally rewarded when, with only a second left on the clock, Deruchie notched the tying goal from Mike Travers and Walker.

Also contributing with good game performances were Jeff Crowe and Bobby Campbell.

Bantams net wins

The Chateau Restaurant Minor Bantams "AA" hosted Ching Tuesday at the Alcott Arena. Ching opened the scoring early in the first period. They went ahead two before Greg Onoprienko counted Georgetown's only goal, from Bill Tuit and Steve Lee. Ching had one more to take the game 3-1.

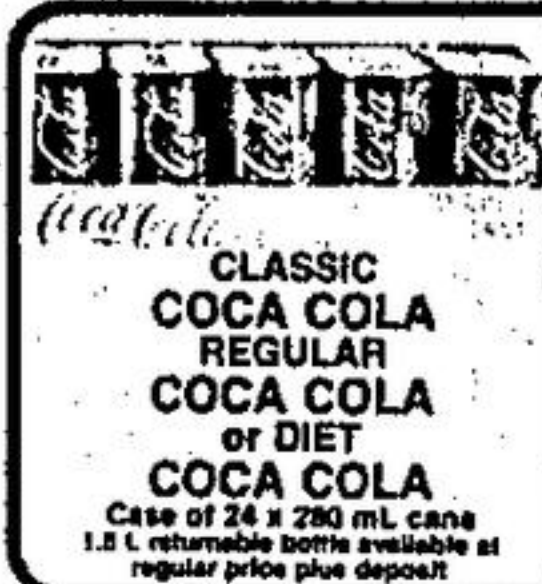

The Chateau and Dundas squared off at the Alcott Saturday. The first period was scoreless when both teams failed to capitalize on scoring opportunities. Doug Kent and one past Ching's goalie as Stu Vogt and Chris Stoddart assisted on the play.

Dundas came back four minutes later to tie the game. Steve Sutherland put the puck in the net from Travis Gardiner. Kent tipped the third goal in from Doug McDermott. Gardiner scored on Don Guest's rebound for a 4-1 win.
