Peel police offer tour

By KAY WILSON
Herald Special
NORVAL - The members of Brampton West Women's Institute and neighbors visited Peel Regional Police Headquarters in Brampton Tuesday evening. Superintendent Rowland welcomed the group and introduced tour guide Inspector Banting and Detective Trevelyan.

The tour included the drug and fraud exhibit, the communication and identification bureaus and the firing range. A well-stocked library is used in continuing education, which is necessary for promotion. The group was told that private citizens are invited to assist the Peel Regional Police Force, in their crime prevention programs. Lunch was served by Dorothy Ostrander, Noreen French, Margaret McClure and Isobelle McClure.

Isobel McKay gave the courtesies. World affairs is the topic for the Jan. 14 meeting at the home of Isobel McKay. The speaker will be Beryl Gessard.

Mrs. William Allison's New Zealand relatives, Mrs. Nora McCullum and Mrs. Kay Johnson have returned home after spending a month in our area. While here, they attended their nephew Bob Allison's wedding and were able to see most of our well-known tourist attractions, despite our November weather.

Club dines for yule gathering

NORVAL - Pinegrove Community Club had Christmas dinner out, when 28 members met at Brackens Restaurant last Monday. Following dinner, a tour of Webb's Flowers, with their thousands of poinsettias and azalea blooms, was enjoyed. Euchre was played with winners Jean Brander, Eunice Wilson, Irene Goodfellow, Chester Early. A gift exchange followed.

Norval Women's Institute met for their Christmas meeting at the home of Margurite Hunter. President Amy Burke presided and members answered the roll with a Christmas verse or tradition.

The Sweet Adelines of Brampton entertained with many beautiful numbers and led the group in carol singing. Following the gift exchange, lunch was served by Jean Harrop, Noreen Van Leeuwen, Amy Burke and Lilo Dahmert.

Congratulations to Norval's Pete Pomeroy, who has been elected Chairman of Halton Region for a second term.

7 tables

NORVAL - There were seven tables used by patrons for Norval euchre last Thursday. The winners were: Florie Alcott, Elsie Jarvie, Fred Workman and George Burt. Phil Landry won lone hands while Elizabeth received the lucky draw prize. The lunch committee consisted of Marg Davidson, Kay McMillan, Pearl Burt, Muriel Miller and Ray Addy.

Pinegrove winners

NORVAL - Pinegrove Community Club had nine tables of euchre last Monday. Winners were: Marg Tost, Marian Hunter, Vera Thatcher, Gord McMurchy while the lucky draw went to Mary Wilson.

Resource planner

Marilyn Eger is the new Resource Planning Manager of the Credit Valley Conservation Authority. She replaces the retired Rose Menyes who had the job for 8 1/2 years. Ms. Eger has a Masters degree from York University in Environmental Studies.
