

50 year marriage

By KAY WILSON
Herald Special
NORVAL - Pinegrove Community Club and Norval area people were shocked to learn of the sudden death of Mac Alexander, who passed away Dec. 12.

Mac spent most of his life at RRI Norval attending the one room Pinegrove school. He farmed first with his father and then in turn for himself. Later on, he lived on the farm with his son Ernie.

Mac had enjoyed life to the fullest while keeping with the farm work. He had been out Wednesday evening to the Brampton Senior's Christmas Party and had won first prize for euchre on the previous Monday at the Pinegrove euchre.

He had been active in his community and all farm organizations including the United Cop, where he had just resigned as a director for the past 20 years.

He was called on many times for his words of wisdom and was often known to throw in an odd joke. He and his wife Louie had celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in June.

He is survived by his beloved wife Louisa Ruddle and loving father of Jean (Mrs. Gordon Reid) of Norval; Jessie (Mrs. Joe Zuest) of Milton; Ernie of Norval; Margaret (Mrs. Ron Duncan) of Brampton; and Bill of Norval. Predeceased by his daughter Mary Lou Robinson-Solecki and her son Douglas and his only sister Janet Barnes.

He is also survived by 14 grandchildren and six great grandchildren. Funeral service was from the J.S. Jones Funeral Home, Georgetown Dec. 14 at 2 p.m. with Rev. Walter Ridley conducting the service.

Interment was in Hillcrest cemetery. Sincere sympathy is extended to Louie and family.

Unit 1 of Norval United Church Women met for their Christmas meeting at the home of Kay Wilson Dec. 12 for a pot luncheon. Dorothy McLean presided for the meeting, opening with the poem Star of Hope. Marlon Laird read the minutes and the devotional was taken by Muriel Wey.

An article about the Messiah by Handel was read by Dorothy McLean and his music was played on tape by Marion Laird. Roll was the exchange of gifts from the member's unknown friend.

Special guests were Rev. Walter and Marg Ridley, Canon Jimmy and Mary Maxwell and Luella MacDonald.

7 tables in Pinegrove

By KAY WILSON
Herald Special
NORVAL - Mrs. William Allison's New Zealand relatives, Mrs. Nora McCullum and Mrs. Kay Johnson, have returned home after spending a month in our area.

While here they attended their nephew Bob Allison's wedding and were able to see most of the well known tourist attractions, despite our November weather.

Get well wishes to Jan Carter who is recuperating at home following surgery in Toronto General Hospital.

Pinegrove Community Club had seven tables in Monday. The winners were Jean Brander, Ming Davidson, Mac Alexander and Gord Murchy. The lucky draw prize went to Art May.

Snowmobile accident

NORVAL - A serious snowmobile accident on the Tenth Line below 5 Sideroad sent Mike Frost to Georgetown District Memorial Hospital. He was later transferred to Sunnyside Hospital in Toronto.

Mr. Frost was driving his snowmobile when he crossed in front of a car driven by a RRI Norval man, Mr. Frost is also from RRI Norval.

BDC helps

The Business Development Committee is reaching out to firms in Hillton Hills for property information.

The BDC has sent out letters to businesses asking if they have industrial properties or buildings for sale or lease.
