

Atom selects split

Flying from the opening faceoff, the Halton Hills Tire minor atom selects defeated Brampton 6-2 Tuesday night.

Strong forechecking by the forwards and solid defence by Ian Anderson, David Steer, Mark Dodson and Jeff Crowe earned the locals a well-deserved victory. Anderson, who played an outstanding game, put the first marker on the board with help from linemate Michael Wilkinson. A strong performance from Matt Deruchie netted two more for Georgetown while singles went to Wilkinson, Ryan Brain and Andrew Marshall.

Jason Walker had two assists and Anderson, Marshall, Wilkinson, Bobby Campbell, Dodson and Billy Sullivan all had one each. Goaltender Ryan Hay played solidly in goal for the Selects. Coaches Dwayne Hay and Mick Crowe were very pleased with the entire team's performance.

Unfortunately it was a different story when the Selects hosted another Brampton team Sunday night. This time it was Georgetown on the bottom of a 6-2 decision. Georgetown goals were from Deruchie and Jason Walker with assists going to Michael Travers, Anderson and Dodson. Brain and Sullivan also played well.

Conservation Award

Do you know someone who has demonstrated concern for the environment? Now is the time to recognize them. The Halton Region Conservation Authority is accepting nominations until Dec. 31 for the Ralph Sherwood Conservation Award.

If you know someone who has made contributions, like a teacher who has taught students about ecology or a landowner who practices good land use, contact the Community Relations Division of Halton Region Conservation Authority. Their number is 876-4131 and they are located at 310 Main Street in Milton.
