By MARION HUNTER
Herald Special
ASHGROVE - Luncheon at the Harrop House in Milton started a happy time for the Ashgrove Women's Institute Dec. 17. It was their annual Christmas meeting and this year their usual exchange of gifts were all handmade. These included Christmas cake, tree decorations, slippers, placemats etc. The program conveners Doreen Wickson and Doreen Wicks had a fine program - carol singing, a demonstration on bow-making by Betty Dixon of Glen Williams and how these can be used to make wreaths, Christmas tree, dolls as well as decorating gifts. This was followed by Doreen Wicks showing how to make cone wreaths. The next meeting is Jan. 21 at 1:30 p.m. in Hillcrest Church.

News from Ballinafad

BALLINAFAD - A Christmas Eve service was held at the church with a good attendance. The Sunday service before Christmas was observed by members of the Sunday school lighting the fourth Advent candle. Both the senior and junior choir sang anthems. Holy Communion service following the message by Rev. Bandy. The community was saddened a few days before Christmas to hear of the death of Mrs. Connie Johnston, wife of Rev. Kelvin Johnston. He was a former pastor of Ballinafad United Church. We heard too, that Mrs. Helga Schwarz recently lost her mother in Germany. We offer sincere sympathy to both these families.
