

Royals take title

By JAMES ROBILARD
Herald Special

The Hillsburgh Royals travelled to Palmerston on the weekend and came away with the Consolation honors in the Ontario Hockey Association Intermediate "C" and "B" tournament hosted by the Palmerston 81's Hockey Club.

The Royals opened the tournament dropping a 3-1 decision to the defending Ontario Intermediate "B" champion

Durham Huskies.

Dale Braiden scored the only Hillsburgh marker to open the game after just 56 seconds of play before the Huskies knotted the score at one, as the period ended.

Durham scored two goals in the third period to take the win. Brad Miller played a strong game in the Royals net stopping 23 shots.

The Royals edged the Lambeth Kings 4-3 in their winner with just 2:58 remaining in the game. Murray scored twice to pace the attack while Steve Buchanan and Braiden rounded out the scoring with one each.

On Sunday the Royals doubled Palmerston 4-2 in the semifinals as Braiden, Karl Meyer, Buchanan and Andy Broadbent notched one goal each.

Brad Miller again was strong between the pipes making 19 saves in 21 chances.

The Consolation Final was really no contest, as Hillsburgh dumped Shelburne Muskies 7-1. Dale Braiden scored four times with Paul Fraser, Riv Kennedy and Chris Peavoy hitting the twine once each for the Royals.

With the win the Royals captured the Consolation Trophy. Exeter Mohawks took the Championship hardware squeezing past the Dunnville Mudcats 2-1.

ROYALTIES: Andy Broadbent came home with two individual awards. Broadbent won the shooters portion of the showdown competition scoring five goals in the finals and was voted the tournament's all-star centreman. Royals play host to Elora this weekend on Saturday at 7:30 p.m. and then travel to Exeter on Sunday to face the Mohawks.
