Young farmer sees Africa's plight

BALLINAFAD - The sacrament of Holy Communion was observed during the Sunday church service. Girl Guides, Cubs and Brownies marched up the aisle with their leaders carrying banners. They stayed with the congregation until after the Senior Choir sang the beautiful anthem, then they joined the Sunday School scholars and went down to classes.

The pancake supper at the church on Shrove Tuesday was well attended and quite successful.

On Feb. 15, the Ballinafad Community Centre was the scene of much activity. There was an auction sale of antiques drawing a large crowd.

The Women's Institute is conducting a home beautifying course which includes the old craft of candle wicking. The course leaders are Helga Schwarz and Betty Koperdraad. The second meeting was held Monday afternoon at Betty's home and a third meeting is planned for mid March.

Miss Cheryl Morrow accompanied Miss Lillian Shortill of Toronto when they spent the weekend with Lillian's mother Mrs. Rita Shortill in the village.

NORVAL - Alan Thompson was guest speaker at the Pinegrove Community Club held at the home of Gertrude McGee Feb. 10.

Alan told of his trip and experiences as a delegate to the World Congress of Young Farmers in Upper Volta, a country in the interior of Africa. Alan said he was fighting tears many times when he saw the plight and destitution of the women and children.

Their main need is water, he said and to get fresh spring water wells have to be drilled every day.

Alan took several side trips on his own and visited a young farmer in Portugal. He also stopped off in Venice before travelling back to Paris and then home.

Alan is a graduate of Guelph University and he is presently farming at RR4 Georgetown. Ruth Thompson thanked the speaker and presented him with a small token. Keith Webb chaired the meeting and lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Jean Brander.

Brampton West Women's Institute met at the home of president Dorothy Ostrander Feb. 11 at 1:30 p.m. Charlotte McClure, Mable Terry and Janet Struiksma assisted the hostess in serving dessert.

Mrs. Nancy Schmidt, home

economist, was the guest speaker. She spoke of the value of a varied diet. Members answered a quiz which gave them a personal score on calcium in their diet.

The roll call question was "what is your most nutritious buy for $1?" Members bought tickets for the Peel South District Dessert Euchre to be held March 25 starting at 1:30 p.m. Isabel Fraser gave the courtesies and presented Mrs. Schmidt with a flowering plant.

The March meeting is on the 11th at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Lois Fraser. Guest speaker will be Mrs. Bev.

McMurchy, who will speak on understanding youth.

40th anniversary

NORVAL - Congratulations to Bud and Joan Carter of Norval who are celebrating their 40th wedding anniversary Feb. 23. Their family of Kathy Gastle, Connie Karlsson and Ellen Carter are holding an open house at their parents' home Feb. 22 from 2-4 p.m. and 7-9 p.m. Best wishes only.

The Norval Community Centre had seven tables Thursday. The winners were Lillian Shaperly, Vivian Shaw, Ray Addy and John Hunter.

MS ski-a-thon
