CONTROL AND AUTOMATION PRODUCT SALES MANAGERS

Rapid Growth in the past 2 years has spread the single handed efforts of our President too thin. New positions are now open for Product Line Sales Managers. These imaginative field specialists will provide a technical link between our customers and our engineering and production departments.

Blackbox manufactures remote controls and automation systems for machinery. Our familiarity with mining, construction and industrial machinery is a unique strength when doing system design and installation. Our new reps must also bridge that gap and add to that strength.

Responsibilities will include direct, dealer and O.E.M. sales in domestic and export markets. Product line growth strategy, forecasting and management will supplement the initial "hands-on" sales effort as results justify additional help. In addition to proven sales expertise in the target areas, the applicants should have the following special attributes:

MINING PRODUCTS MANAGER
 • Understanding of mining methods and a feel for the future of automation in mining.
 • Knowledge of the international mining community and it's related machinery manufacturers.

INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTS MANAGER
 • Engineering or practical background in overhead crane electrical systems.
 • Familiarity with industrial machinery and markets.

RAILWAY PRODUCTS MANAGER
 • Experience with mainline and Industrial railway users.
 • Expert knowledge of motive power and other railway equipment.
