

Juniors tennis victors

The Gordon Alcott junior boys tennis team won its second game in a row this season, beating Brampton 6-2.

In under-15 singles play Jim Lawrence lost a pair of 6-2 decisions in his first-ever singles match for the team. However, officially Lawrence won the match 6-0, 6-0 because his opponent was 30 minutes late and Lawrence won by default.

Winston and Jason Pun, two brothers from Acton playing their first match for Georgetown, lost their first set 6-2 but came on strong to win the second match 6-0 to tie their under-15 doubles match.

Dave Harris and Rory Kennedy had little trouble adjusting to the clay courts, losing their first match 6-1. But the duo played a more aggressive second set and won 6-1 to tie their under-18 doubles match. Mike Hurley beat his under-18 singles opponent 6-3 in the first set, and came from behind to tie the second set at 4-4 before using a powerful serve to close out the set 6-4.

The team's next match will be at home Saturday at 9:30 a.m. at the Alcott tennis courts.

Alcott ladies lose to Bramalea

The Gordon Alcott Ladies Inter-County "A" team dropped a 3-1 decision last week to Bramalea.

Kay King and Pat Harris had the lone win for the locals with a 6-7, 6-3, 6-3 victory. Doreen Thompson and Marla Gregg lost a 6-1, 3-6, 3-6 decision while Isla Allison dropped a 4-6, 1-4 match. In the other match Ann Kennedy and Brenda Sissett were defeated 2-6, 1-6.

Bantams gain ball split

Limehouse bantam girls split their first two games of the Halton Rural Softball League season.

The team defeated Eramosa 39-10 as Nichole Dupuis had the win, pitching five innings. Michelle Webster got the save in relief. Although the entire team hit well in the game, Jennifer Klaassen and Lisa Bouskill both scored six runs each.

In their other game Limehouse was defeated 7-4 by defending league champs Cheltenham despite Webster's seven-hit pitching. Webster also had 11 strikeouts.

The team is in Puslinch tonight, and returns home to host Glen Williams in Limehouse starting at 6:30 p.m.
