

Special moment for Huttonville parish

By KAY WILSON
Herald Special
NORVAL-Anniversaries are a time of memories and a very joyous day indeed for over 300 people who attended Huttonville United Church June 1 on the occasion of its 100th anniversary.

Rev. Walter Ridley conducted the service, with the Very Rev. Clarke Macdonald as special speaker.

Mrs. Lori Patten was organist. Special music was supplied by the Sunday School pupils and the senior choir. Mrs. Marion Hamsdale of Huttonville Church sang two lovely solos, guests Mrs. Jane (Ferre) Potovsky and Betsy Callanan sang a duet and Jane sang a beautiful solo "Exultate" by Mozart.

Lovely new Bibles for the pews, given by Dr. Joseph and Mary Lou Leach of Kingsville and a pulpit Bible donated by R.J. and Betty Jane Stewart were dedicated in memory of their parents and the late Jack and Bessie Fraser.

Beautiful brass vases, filled with red roses, were dedicated. These were the gifts of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Oldham in memory of Mrs. Oldham's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Coppick.

MPP Robert Callahan presented a 100th anniversary plaque from the Ontario government. A short organ recital followed the service, to demonstrate the new organ which is hoped will be purchased.

The anniversary cake decorated by Mrs. Ken Williamson, a fourth generation member, was the highlight of the after service lunch. The cake-cutting ceremony was carried out by Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Fraser and Mr. Clarence Ostrander, all of whom were the oldest lifetime members of the church. Mrs. Roy Trimble assisted.

A buffet lunch was served both outside and in the Sunday School room. Some people renewed friendship after over 50 years.

Mrs. Irene Smithers, 91, of Brampton was pleased to tell of being baptised 91 years ago in the church. Her name appeared on the autographed quilt made by the Ladies Aid in 1904.

Digester tender
The region is expected to approve a tender in the amount of $11,298 today (Wednesday) for its annual maintenance and inspection of the digester gas systems at Halton's water pollution control plants.

Ordan Thermal Products Ltd. of Markham submitted the lowest tender for the job which consists of inspecting and servicing the pressure relief valves, flame arresters, pressure regulators, waste gas burners, compressors and gas boosters.

Because of the workload involved and special equipment and skills required, this work must be contracted out, the region's public works director said.

News from Norval

Trip to Ireland

NORVAL-Joe and Norine Van Leeuwen of Norval have returned from a four week trip to England, Wales, South and Northern Ireland. They stayed in the homes of Women's Institute members and had bed and breakfast accommodation in Ireland.

Home from Holland
NORVAL-Welcome home to Bill and Rita Deenik, RR2 Norval, who have returned from a 4 1/2 week trip to Holland. Here they visited Bill's sisters and enjoyed Tricia's 26th wedding anniversary. They also took a side trip to Paris, France.

Barbeque style
NORVAL-The annual chicken barbeque for Norval United Church was held at the Huttonville School last Saturday and 1,000 dinners were served.

Choir for youth
June 11 at 7:30 p.m., Maple Avenue Baptist Church will welcome the "Youth Choir and Hand Bell Ringers" from First United Methodist Church in Brevard, North Carolina. All are welcome to attend their performance of selections from a musical celebration of faith, "A Reason to Rejoice". The Choir is on a summer tour which includes concerts in Bluefield, Virginia, Lexington, Kentucky, Daton, Waterville and Cleveland, Ohio, Toronto and Georgetown.

Canon Maxwell enjoys anniversary celebration

NORVAL-Congratulations to the Rev. Canon J.E. Maxwell of RR4 Georgetown on the 45th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood. Canon Maxwell has been ministering in the area for close to 40 years and since his retirement to the cottage north of Norval, he has been helping out in various churches. He also celebrates the Eucharist at his own altar.

Flowers adorned the school and pictures and snaps of days gone by formed the background for the tables for lunch, served by friends and members of St. Stephens, Hornby and St. Johns, Stewarttown.

Road washdown

Firefighters were called out at 5:54 a.m. Sunday to wash down an area of the highway near Winston Churchill Blvd. and Highway 7. Two trucks responded to the call. The washdown was needed after a motor vehicle mishap.
