

Canada Day ...

... in Glen Williams

Glen strikes up band, raises the flag

This float was made of little flags and young Canadians. There was plenty of both at the Glen Williams celebration. (Herald photo)

The Milton Peel Sweet Adelines entertained those at Glen Williams yesterday. They sang a variety of songs from a variety of eras in their barbershop style. (Herald photo)

Safe! Councillor Pam Sheldon made it a no contest play at first when she started the second inning for the town councillors in a game against the Glen Williams Tax Payers. Some of the councillors said they would rather talk than play and they showed they were pretty good at both. (Herald photo)

Local businesses got a chance to show their creativity in Glen Williams' Canada Day parade. This float from the Hobby Horse on the Ninth Line shows a little of the pioneering spirit that started the country 119 years ago. (Herald photo)

With a little leverage and determination the bigger will fall harder. A demonstration from the Milton School of Jujitsu included a surprise visit from a member of the audience who fell as well as the best of them.

HERALD PHOTOS BY SANDY CAMPBELL

Biking can be fun when you're in a parade. These three roadsters are enjoying the limelight. They are (left to right) Jim Cunningham, Stephen Mannal and David Gelak. (Herald photo)

Rory Tooke was giving the fire department a hand on Canada Day. He is being supervised by volunteer firefighter Peter Todd. (Herald photo)

The Halton Hills Recreation Department put on the clown for the young and those a little older. Helen Bird is seen here painting Peter Casnar. (Herald photo)

Brownies and Guides showed their patriotism and national spirit on Canada Day. They were waving flags for their troupe and country. (Herald photo)

Georgetown Notre Dame students take top honors

Herald Special
Notre Dame Secondary School in Brampton, held their second annual Awards Night on Tuesday, June 24. Many "Georgetowners" received awards in the six different categories.
The School Service Certificate is presented to those pupils who have served to significantly influence the growth and development of a club, association or society within the school.
The Georgetown recipients of this award were: Nap Benito, Kathryn Rock, Susan Spudis, Rhonda Ellard, Duane Coleman, Dave de Haas, Paul Koppers, Lisa Gougeon, Michelle Cameron, Elizabeth Kraus and Graham Edwards.
The Academic Progress Award is presented to those students who exemplify a keen determination to improve and learn.
The Georgetown students who received this award were: Sheri

Basha, Tania Kennedy, Natalie Andrews, Ford Fraser, Steven Hawes, Kathryn Frazer, Jennifer McLean, Mark Lorito, Adriana Ricciuto, Stephen Lysy, Karen Dobbie, David Lobb, Robert Moore, Cindy Danykshen, Paul Koppers, Amber Denomme, Erin Hughes and Jonathan Allen.
The Subject Achievement Award is presented to those pupils who have achieved the highest academic standing in a single subject for a particular grade level. The students from Georgetown who received this award were: Robert Moore - for Grade 9 Geography and Math, Michelle Cameron - for Grade 10 Music and Geography, Nap Benito - for Grade 9 Typing and Physical Education, Joseph Previte - for Grade 10 Woodworking, Cathy Itajungaham - for Grade 10 Music, Ford Fraser and Stephen Bartlett both - for Grade 9 Business, Theresa Lane - for Grade 10 Science and Susan Spudis for Grade 10 Typing.

The Honour Society is presented to those students who have achieved an overall average of 80 per cent in a school year, with no individual subject mark below 65 per cent.
The winners, from Georgetown, of this award were: Amanda DeWinter, Alex Cachia, Adriana Ricciuto, Vincent Gray, Robert Moore, Cara Buckley, Cathy Shewell, Melissa Morey, Cheryl Poirier, Stephen Bartlett, Mark Smellie, Michelle Cameron and Nap Benito.
The Outstanding Rookie of the Year Award is presented to the outstanding grade 9 athlete, female and male, who have best combined technical skill with a commitment to the ideals of teamwork, leadership and Christian sportsmanship. The three male and three female nominees for this award were: 1. Nap Benito (Georgetown), 2. Stephen Hoo, 3. John LePage, 1.

Cheryl Poirier (Georgetown), 2. Erin Hughes (Georgetown), 3. Mandy Allen.
The two winners of this award were: Stephen Hoo and Erin Hughes (Georgetown).
The Outstanding Athlete Award is given to the outstanding male and female athletes who have best combined technical skill with a commitment to the ideals of teamwork, leadership and Christian sportsmanship. The three male and three female nominees for this award were: 1. Duane Coleman (Georgetown), 2. Allen Jonassen (Georgetown), 3. Tony Brunner 1. Rhonda Ellard (Georgetown), 2. Erin Hughes (Georgetown), 3. Jeanette Clark (Georgetown).
The two winners of this award were: Tony Brunner and Erin Hughes - who also won Rookie of the Year and lives here in Georgetown.
The School Builders Award is presented to those pupils, teachers, parents or other persons who have contributed significantly to the growth and development of the school community. One of the two recipients of this award was teacher Mr. Kotsos, from Georgetown.

Mr. Kotsos is credited with organizing a fantastic student council, connected with such event as: Balloons for Peace, Blue Jays Day, School Dances etc. Mr. Kotsos also takes time out of his schedule to help work in the Guidance Department, as well as teach science.
The Hall of Fame Award is presented annually in recognition of a major contribution made to society by a Notre Dame student, staff member, parent, or by someone beyond the school who by his/her life and actions exemplifies the Christian ideals to which the school is committed.
This year, the award was given to Dr. Simone who is the chief organizer of "Canadian Food for Children". Dr. Simone works to provide food for poor children all over who do not have the food they need to stay alive.

80th birthday
NORVAL-A surprise 80th birthday party for Chester Early, RR1 Norval, was held at Pinegrove School Sunday afternoon. Hosted by his nephew and his wife Bruce and Vera Thatcher, around 100 people signed the book.
Guests included nieces, nephews and cousins of Chester, also members of the Pinegrove Community Club, friends and neighbors. Family members came from Bracebridge, Arthur, Fiesheron, Guelph and Toronto.
The school was decorated for the occasion and a beautiful birthday cake followed a sumptuous buffet.