Violets shine in victory

Pauls Navy 10 - Ultra Violet 12
Once again Ultra Violet shone, with Gloria Sinclair hitting a grand slam. The entire team held their ground to sweep in this win. Betty Fendley and Jennie David pitched well again. Betty also scored a home run. The team is awaiting the return of Calec McCristall who is recovering from a back injury. Coach sxxs great game by all. For the Navy, Cathy Van Dentlock executed a terrific bunt, making Ultra Violet scurry for their victory. Danny Doubles by Hope Hulme, Linda Perkins and Debbie Titus.

Solid Gold Hits 10 - Blue Purrs 2
Outstanding evening by Cindy Haskins, led to a confirmed victory. Kim Richardson scored a double along with Goldie Cash and Anne Puckering. Cindy scored the only homer of the game. For the Purrs Joanne Coles gave it her all hitting a triple and bringing up a runner to score one of their two runs. The Purrs didn't have a chance with Solid Gold hits playing an error-free game.

Mae's Muffins 7 - Tom Collins Mix 5
A good close game saw Mae's mufflour rise to the occasion and beat Tom Collins Mix 7-5. For Tom Collins Debbie Tolham continued to pitch well along with Julie Fournier. At the plate Julie, Kay King and Sue McDonald were two for three with Sue crossing the plate twice. Jackie Diegel smacked out a strong double and was brought home on a Shanon Pshyk single. The play of the game was a perfect bunt by Susie Williams scoring Julie all the way from first. Muffins' Irene Little made a tremendous catch along with Bev Compton's terrific fielding, and this secured the win. Total team effort by all of the Muffins.

Gang Green 13 - Purple Helix 7
Gang Green gave Purple Helix a royal fight to the finish. Elaine Mooreland pitched excellent and had a great evening at the plate as well, scoring three doubles. Sheila Kirk's two consistent hitting by the entire Gang Green team. Purple Helix tried unsuccessfully to beat Gang Green with Penny Butterworth crossing the plate twice. Runs by Mary Kelly, Debbie Davies, Debbie Pierce, Ann Frank and Sharon Smilja aided in this close score.

Scarletts Fever 13 - Blues Batters 10
Scarletts Fever never let up to take this win. Outstanding pitching by Wendy Graham and Chris Styles made the game, along with Vicky Johnston's outstanding defensive talents. Consistent hitting by Leanne Fournier, Wendy and Marie Orr sealed the win. For the Blues Batters Arlene Finlay and Robin Hillock crossed the plate once making this a tight score game. The Blues Batters tried to come back in the last two innings, but were unsuccessful in keeping Scarletts Fever down.

Heart Busters 39 - Tigers 6
Heart Busters came when called to make this victory. An almost error free game by the entire team, and sweeping up with nine runs in the 7th secured the win. Going five for five at the plate were Jean Wilson, Pam McDonald, Bonnie Halcher and Dianne Saunders. Tigers had many noticeable hits but were unable to hold the Heart Busters score to a minimum. Good game by Robin Richardson, Wendy Farrow and Rose Wilcox. Wendy Middleton pitched a great game throwing accurately putting the ball in play.

Notes-A warm welcome to Scarletts Fever's new coach Andy Orr. And a special mention to Janet Tolten, for excellent umpiring in her first game of the G.L.P.L. season.

Horsing around

Support is mounting (so to speak) for Scotsdale Farm. The Ontario Equestrian Federation wants to make the 540-acre site into a home park. The Ontario Trail Riders Association were at the Ballinafad site recently to show that they like the idea. (Herald photo)

Gems on the road selling program ads

Even though it's only early July, Georgetown Gemini program committee members will be out in full force talking to prospective advertisers about hockey.

Committee chairman Finn Poulstrup said this year's program will be about 50 pages and offer a pair of lucky draws for up to $200 in prizes each week. In addition, the program will feature pictures and stories pertaining to the hockey club and its players.

"We're pretty excited," he said. "We're going to try and put together the best program you've ever seen."

Committee members began selling ads in the program this week. The prices go from $5 to about $450 depending on size and location and range in size from business card to full page. The committee is looking for a gross sale of about $23,000.

Committee members include Larry White, Keith Bennett, Karen Harrison, Al Walker, Barry Whit-
