

Streaking T-ball Tigers

WEDNESDAY
The Standard Products Tigers, on a six game winning streak, took a 2-2 decision against the Halton Credit Union Mets. Congratulations go to Patrick Huibers and Daniel MacNeal for their good efforts.

Blair Jackson also figured in the game scoring a pair of home runs and making a beautiful out on a fly ball. Mathew Burns of the Mets also gets honourable mention for his great hits every time to bat, and Stephen Gibbons for his home run.

The Royal Canadian Legion Astros won their second straight game 3-2 against the Bumper to Bumper Reds. John Howell and Tom Fisher both boast home runs and Adam Chisasso as well as being the ace defensive player hit two home runs in for the Astros.

The Reds didn't give up without a fight though. Michael Richardson hit three home runs and Brian McFadden and Peter Tretter played the field like pros. Coach Gord Swanson feels it was their best outing so far this year.

THURSDAY
The Royal Canadian Legion Astros met the Standard Products Tigers in a tight game on Thursday with the Tigers coming out ahead 2-20. The first two innings were neck and neck, but the Tigers strong defensive play scored them eight outs to win the game in the third inning.

Kevin Sheppard and Josh Cluney are to be commended for their expertise in the field for the Tigers. The Astros Mike Madill, with a double, Christine Ezekiel, with a double and Mathew McMullen, with a triple, led their team offensively.

The McEachern Steering Rangers beat the Castlemen Fuel Angels 3-27 this week. Michael Armstrong continues to play fine ball, despite playing with a broken arm. Bradley Kouyoumjian and Michael Wallinga both scored four home runs for the Rangers.

Brad Densmore and Michael Kitchen provided the Angels with some power hitting, and Nicholas Ritchie as well as Megan Boyce gave it their all in the field.

Gordon Alcott ladies score 4

The Gordon Alcott Ladies "C" Inter County tennis team played indoors Wednesday against Brampton IV and fought hard to take 4 points.

Dalga Zelek and Midge Hampshire in three sets won 6-1, 6-7, 6-3. Karin Wilson and Quida Gravelle also won in three sets 6-7, 7-5, 6-1. Trudy Roy and Margot Prior won with 6-3, 7-5. Sandy Morrow and Norma Maynard had another three set win, 6-1, 6-7, 6-1. We must practise these tie breakers.

In house league play Frank Buckley's team is out in front, Malcolm MacLeod's team in 2nd, there is a close race for 3rd with teams of Clovis Roy and Don Henderson. Ute Schluter and Jim Hamilton's teams are closing the gap. Peter Hemming and Gerry Andrew's teams should score more points now with eight players each.

In Inter County "A" tennis play Gordon Alcott took four matches from Bramalea I.

The convincing victory was the first game they played in the second round involving eight teams. Gordon Alcott I is third in the standings.

Among the winners were Kay King, Chris Steen, Marcie Gregg, Doreen Thomson, Linda Rice, Brenda Sissett, Audrey Houston and Isla Allison.
