

Canoers better mark

The canoeing team of Atton High School teachers has done it again this year, only better. For the first time in its five years of Voyageur Cup competition the team swept the entire event defeating 10 other Ontario and Quebec teams to win the cup. Team spokesman Paul Tamblin said the team has won the Parks Canada trophy for best costume five times. They won the Bill Mason trophy for best four minute routine, demonstrating canoe maneuvers and padding skills once before. This was their first time to win the Kanawa Canoe Museum trophy for winning the four kilometer race however, and this is the first time they have taken all three events. They did win the cup before because they placed first in aggregate score on the three competitions but never before did they actually win all three trophies. In 1985 the school's junior team made up of students won the Young Voyageur Cup in the same competition and the seniors took an event or two in their class. This year there was no junior competition and only the senior team entered the race. Mr. Tamblin said the 1986 event was sponsored by the Canadian Recreational Canoeing Association. Previous competitions were sponsored by the federal government. Mr. Tamblin said he believed the National Capital Commission wanted other canoeing competitions to start around the county so interest in our fur trading and voyageur canoeing history would be stimulated in the general public. Such an alternate competition took place in Chatham this year for the first time. There were also a couple of canoeing trips, one to Lachine and one around Orillia. As a result several of the senior teams failed to show up for the event. This year's competition was in Jacques Cartier Park on the Ottawa River across from Capital Hill, Mr.

Tamblin said. He estimated the crowds at 3,000 to 4,000. Efforts were made to get the public involved and team members enjoyed answering questions from the audience who wandered up to inspect them after the race. The team included two young members, Derek Boyle who graduated this year and Sandy Munro who graduated last year, as well as Dave Boycott, Murray Kittermer, Mr. Tamblin and former teacher Tom Birss.
