★★★ JUST A MATTER OF BALANCE ★★★

Boathouse bash

It's going to be a big event in Acton, Saturday, when the new Fairy Lake boathouse is officially opened. There'll be lots of balloons, hot dogs and ice cream at old-fashioned prices.

For the kiddies, the Halton Hills Parks and Recreation Department will be holding children's activities from 12 noon to 2 p.m.

The ceremony and picnic is being sponsored by the Recreation Department. Everyone's welcome to turn up and help celebrate Prospect Park's new addition.

There will also be refreshments at old-fashioned prices. Join in for a lunch of hot dogs, ice cream and pop at 25 cents each.

The juggling antics and comic wit of Jeff Bradley visited Acton and Georgetown Public Libraries Aug. 13. Mr. Bradley entertained the "mostly children" audience with his 30-minute show. (Herald photos.)

Crafts, games at First Base

FIRST BASE provides a warm, caring environment for school-aged children who require supervision before and/or after school hours. As the centre is right within the child's own school, there is only one drop off and one pick up needed, thus minimizing the risk to the child and adding convenience to the parents.

FIRST BASE provides a varied program of crafts, games, sports and fun in an attractive, large facility, all under the very capable leadership of YMCA-trained staff. A nutritious snack is served during the afternoon program.

As FIRST BASE is government licensed, fees are tax deductible and subsidization is available for those who need it. Rates are either for full-time which includes all P.D. Days and family discounts or for part-time with P.D. Days extra.

FIRST BASE is backed by the reputation and experience of the YMCA. For further information, please call the Georgetown YMCA at 877-6163 or the Acton YMCA at 853-1070. Registrations are now being accepted.

The FIRST BASE Centres are open from 7:30 a.m. to school starting and from school closing until 6 p.m. on regular school days and from 7:30 to 6 p.m. on all P.D. Days, all of the March Break days and most of the Christmas holidays.

There are FIRST BASE Centres in both Georgetown and Acton. Georgetown's FIRST BASE Centres are at Harrison, Park, and George Kennedy Public Schools as well as at Holy Cross Separate School.
