If you caught the weekend edition last week then you would have read about John DeVries, the ladies finals and the upcoming Ontario finals. It appears there is no advantage in typing up the column early as I left the middle section at home whilst dropping off sections 1 and 3 in time for the Wednesday editions!

Well, it is all interesting if nothing else. The whole thing often does not make much sense, never mind the portions delivered. I did manage to get the missing page in to the office, alas, not in time.

The Inter County week was a disaster due to the weather. Games which started did not finish except for Meteor White's victory over Meteor Blue by 2-1. I saw some of this match and it was a cleanly played match with good spirit abounding. For the second week in a row a late goal was despatched by White to seal the win. Villa 'A' rebounded from the previous week to take a two-goal lead against Varian when bad light ended play (not to mention the streaks of lightning). Masters went to the wrong field in Milton (not their fault) and the game began late and finished early. So the story went.

This evening all early kick-offs with Blue hosting Ancients, Ajax entertaining Varian, Park Avenue Collision meeting Rangers and Masters taking on Trexcon in town. White travel to Villa 'A' and Villa 'B' got to Milton F.C. to round off the fixtures.

With the soccer club's boys' finals going ahead last Saturday Cedarvale has some peevee and bantam girls games on Tuesday to help the fixture clog before they play their finals round robin on Saturday at Neilson and Dorsey fields. Another busy day for all.

Terry Dixon and Gary Morow pulled off something they were unable to achieve with 'Town teams in each capturing an Ontario cup championship medal with their respective teams. Dixon played in, for me, an unaccustomed spot as the left wing striker for Burlington and was not in the game much in the first half against a physical Malvern and was subbed midway through the half. The game was a battle between the strong men of both sides. With the wind at their backs Burlington took the lead as it looked as though they were not going to take advantage of the conditions and home field in their favor. Malvern drew level and on it went. Dixon came back on in the second half with Burlington playing with a 4-4-2 and more successful style of play, with the lad more in evidence. As time wore on we were beginning to think overtime when the home team again took the lead. Malvern drew level yet again to see overtime beckon. We all reckoned without striker Simon Dewar who netted again for his hat trick and set up fellow strike Dave Colby for the final goal. In the end a deserved win over a team which always took a piece as we say, and whenever gave up until the final goal which came with seconds to go.

Morrow, a central defender with Hamilton Steelers, hardly put a foot wrong all evening as he and his fellow back three defenders were all that were between Dundas and a goal for long spells in the first half. Both goalkeepers were instrumental in keeping the score sheet clean at the interval. Two second half goals from Steelers gave them a well earned cup victory. Looking back at the game, Morrow missed one header and one ground ball which constitutes a superb performance. He even managed a header from a set piece which narrowly shaved the goal post and a shot which also came close. Impressive wins over Woodbridge, Brampton and Toronto Emerald were among those on the Steelers march to victory.

The weather this past couple of weeks has played havoc with schedules yet we are still managing to keep on top. It is a number of years since we had so much trouble that fields were out of action and players became rusty. That there were so few complaints and lots of co-operation is a tribute to all participants.

Discipline has been a headache for most of the year in the Peel Halton league, and others, if my late season experiences are anything to go by. It seems that there are a number of players, teams and clubs who and which are hell bent on preferring to be suspended by their actions rather than play. A record number of cases have been heard and we are not yet finished dealing with misdemeanors. Several hundred referees have dropped out in the last two years and there could be a lot more after this year. It has been said that the hearing committees have been lenient for the most part.

The Inter County league does not have this lenient approach to problem players, at least that's what the defenders keep telling us. As a result, we do not have many bad cases, just the odd one. Maybe the lesson is here.

There were no surprises in G.F.F.L. playoff action on Sunday, as the favourites were victorious in each of the quarter-final matchups. Delrex Smoke Shop again flourished in the playoffs, dropping a 31-12 decision to Corrigan Instrument. The Longhorns put the Greeks of their misery with a 40-21 trouncing and Dairy Queen staggered the Peel County Bandits 40-14. In the only close match of the day, M and M Pro Sports dropped a heartbreaker 22-21 to North Halton Sports.

DELREX SMOKE SHOP vs CORRIGAN INSTRUMENT
The smoker swan song was decidedly off-key today, as they played and lost their final game in the G.F.F.L. Despite fielding a team composed of such legendary names as Cartwright, Inglis, Frost and Getty, the old, tired muscles simply would not respond as in years past. Only Werner Mikollet and Dave (the Animal) Foster would score touchdowns for the Smokeshop on this day. That meagre offensive output was not nearly enough to match the prolific point scoring prowess of Corrigan Instrument. League scoring champion Brent Ferguson served notice that he wants the playoff title as well. He scored three touchdowns for the Instrument crew. Kevin Harrison handled the rest of the Corrigan scoring, with a touchdown, a field goal and a two-point convert.

Corrigan Instrument plays Dairy Queen next week in what should be a fine game. The offences of these teams are very nearly equal, but Dairy Queen's superior defence should carry the day.

LONGHORNS vs GREEKS

The Greeks called back their errant stars for this vital contest but it was to no avail. They received their just dues perhaps, for treating the regular season as a joke. The individual Greek stars were present, but in one game they could not recreate the magic that formerly carried them so far.

The Longhorns powered their way to the semifinals by virtue of a five-touchdown attack. Jim Lindsay and Paul Allison scored a pair of touchdowns each and Mark Hamilton the other. Lindsay also hoofed a field goal.

For the disillusioned Greeks, who may join the Smokers on the sidelines next year, Wayne Stausulus scored a pair of TDs and blue chip veteran James Allen scored another. Rob Rivers caught a two-point convert.

The Longhorns look ahead to North Halton next week and anticipate a final showdown against the Queens in two weeks.

DAIRY QUEEN vs PEEL COUNTY BANDITS

Dairy Queen advanced to the semi-finals after this laughter over the outgunned Bandits. The Queens rolled to an 18-0 lead at the half on TDs by Steve Crossman and Ron Lunn, a field goal by Jeff Lockwood and a two-point convert by Lloyd Miezanic. In the second half, the relaxed Queens were stung by a pair of Bandit TDs, but they added three more to their own total. Simon Golding and Tim Bennett scored the Peel County majors and Bob Klavkals contributed a two-point convert. Dairy Queen second half touchdowns were scored by Gary Lockwood, Brian Davis and Ron Lunn. Lunn and Howard Hulme scored two-point converts.

M and M PRO SPORTS vs NORTH HALTON SPORTS

A heart breaker for the hard luck Pro Sport squad. M and M led for virtually the entire game, until they were stung by a North Halton touchdown, with only three plays remaining.

Ron Hasselwood scored a pair of majors for the Pro Sports and Mike Henderson tallied another on a pretty 50-yard pass and run play. Brad Ferguson, Sean McQuarrie and Mark Waters each beat the Pro Sport defence for North Halton touchdowns and Brian Beaumont scored a two-point convert.

North Halton players will have to deliver best lifetime performances next week if they are to beat the powerful Longhorns.

In a tough match played between Marilyn Serjeantson and Brenda Sisnett, Sisnett won 6-1, 6-1 at the ladies club championship at North Halton Golf and Country Club Saturday. Seen here are the two finalists, Sisnett (left) and Serjeantson. (Herald photo)
