

Longhorns, Dairy Queen to meet in men's grid final

By DON SCALLEN
Dairy Queen and the Longhorns both defeated East division challengers on Sunday in G.F.F.L. semi final action. The Queens beat Corrigan Instrument 35-20 while the herd thrashed North Halton Sports 34-3. The two finest G.F.F.L. teams now advance to the championship game, which should be one of the most exciting in league history. LONGHORNS vs NORTH HALTON SPORTS

The Longhorns were expected to win this contest, but not by the margin indicated on the scorecard. If there had been any doubts that the cattle deserved a berth in the chamampionship game, they were dispelled on this day.

The Longhorns are methodical. Their strong point is ball possession - QB Mike McCandless moves his team down the field with a series of short, crisp passes, punctuated in good measure by timely pin-point bombs. With McCandless at the helm, the Longhorns have moved from mediocrity two seasons back, to league leadership in 1986.

Herd veteran Wayne Doell, who must be revelling in the dominance his team has finally achieved, scored the game's first touchdown. Bill Allison, another long suffering Longhorn, scored a TD in the second quarter, as did his brother Paul, to give the herd a 20-3 lead at the half.

In the second half, the Longhorns continued their inexorable march to victory. Paul Allison scored two more touchdowns and now stands tied with Corrigan's Brent Ferguson in playoff scoring, with 30 points. Jim Lindsay, who is sure to win the golden boot award for convert kicking prowess helped the herd with four-point afters. North Halton's offense flailed away almost without effect, through most of the game. The leader in the East was embarrassingly outclassed by the herd, pointing out the disparity between the two divisions. Only Sean McQuarrie with a field goal in the first quarter would put points on the board for the Sports squad.

DAIRY QUEEN vs CORRIGAN INSTRUMENT

The offensively potent Instrument crew met Dairy Queen in the other semi final and surprised many observers by staying close to the reigning champs. Corrigan Instrument struck fear into the hearts of Queen faithful by jumping out to an early 14-0 lead on touchdowns by Brent Ferguson and John Larose. The rattled Queens rebounded strongly in the second quarter however and touchdowns by Ron Lunn and Randy Lunn with two, vaulted them into a 21-14 lead at the half.

Early in the third quarter Dairy Queen added a point to that lead on a missed field goal. Corrigan would not say die, however, as shortly afterwards, Ferguson scored his second TD of the game and fifth of the playoffs to push his team within two points of the Queens. (The attempted two-point convert was missed.)

Dairy Queen regained possession and quickly moved to increase their lead to 28-20 with Ron Lunn's second touchdown of the game. With Dairy Queen only a TD and two-point convert ahead, Corrigan morale was still high, and as QB Paul Larose again moved his team within striking distance of the Queen goal line, their spirits soared. Queen savior Bob Lockwood then entered the script and shattered Corrigan dreams with a goal line interception. After the change in possession, accurate passing and a bit of fancy footwork by lumbering QB Mitch LeBlanc, soon moved the ball out of harm's way for the Queens. Then, on the second last play of the game, Howie Hulme scored a final TD, to cement the Dairy Queen victory.

The Queen/Longhorn showdown next week promises to be one of the best championship games ever, since the teams are so evenly matched. Game time is 11 o'clock.

Top two teams in ladies football final

By LEANNE FOURNIER
The battle of the best takes place this Sunday as Madarasz Chiropractic Group took care of Peel County Bandits 16-6 and H and H Video beat Toy Magic 10-8. In consolation action, JV Jets pounded Poppy's 32-6 and Mak Steel beat North Halton Sports 28-13.

Madarasz Chiropractic Group had a battle on their hands. The Thompson sisters provided all the damage for the Group. Jenny Thompson started off the scoring with a sure-footed field goal. Sister Cheryl grabbed a TD pass to increase their lead. Peel County would not give up easily as they marched down the field to score on a Kyra Kristensen Irvine reception. At the half, the Group had a slim three-point lead. The third quarter saw a defensive struggle as neither team could put points on the board. In the fourth, Madarasz knew what they had to do. Jenny Thompson grabbed a TD pass and kicked the single to sew up the win. Dianne Pepper snagged an interception for the Group.

In other championship action, H and H Video had a close encounter of the unwanted kind. The first half consisted of a lone score by Janice Murray with Janet Poirier kicking the single. Nancy Hamilton and Leanne Fournier each grabbed interceptions to stall Magic's attack. Natalie Pacheco continued to make something out of nothing as she returned a punt 75 yards for a TD. Carol Kovacevic grabbed the two-point convert to pull Toy Magic ahead by one. H and H maintained their composure as the defense stopped Magic on a fourth down attempt to allow their offense to have the ball back with two minutes left in the game. Monica Mastalerz hit Julie Fournier on a long bomb to bring H and H to the one yard line. Janet Poirier kicked a perfect field goal to give H and H a two-point lead.

In consolation play, Kim Duncan grabbed a TD and an interception while Cathy Milne had the other TD for North Halton. It wasn't enough as Mak Steel had scores from Bev Vickery, Debbie Croken, Donna Waters, and Kathy Waters.

Poppy's had a tough time shutting down JV's offense while they could only score one major by Kim Beckett. JV had a field day as Sherri Diegel, Herminia Henderson, had majors while Marie Bushy grabbed two. Herminia Henderson and Bert Almeida pulled in two-point converts while Linda Ferguson kicked a single and a field goal. Interceptions were recorded by Linda Ferguson, Lorraine Brown, and Bert Almeida.

The championship final takes place at Irwin-Dorsey field at 9:30 with H and H Video playing Madarasz Chiropractic Group and the consolation final will see JV versus Mak Steel at 12:30.

GAME STARS: Dianne Pepper (CG), Janet Poirier and Janice Murray (H and H), Natalie Pacheco (TM), the whole Peel County team, Bert Almeida (JV), Kim Beckett (P), Donna Waters (MS), Jennifer Reynolds (NHIS).

Rebels fare well at meet

By GREG SHOLDICE
Herald Correspondent
At Heart Lake Conservation Area, Saturday the Georgetown District High School cross country team did quite well, even with an incomplete team

The Rebels had two first place finishes (midget boys won overall team honors and Bob Donker finished on top in the Midget boys race), the midget girls, on the other hand, had only one member attend. Kim Barr ran as a junior and placed 12th overall.

The girls Senior team had a very close and wet race, Amy Powers finished and the team overall finished fourth. Other team members to place were Linda Wenham, Janelle Lewis and Shawn Langdon. Exact placings weren't available.

A disappointment was the junior boys second place finish, just 12 points out of top spot. The top Rebel was Dave Paul (12th) followed by Brendon Cleary (14th), Jeff Amato (15th) and Cam Herman (48th). The absence of runners Glenn Mulder and Paul Tufford was probably a reason why the junior squad just fell short of first.

The senior boys team, made up of mostly rookies placed sixth overall, with Jim Clark leading the way with a 12th place finish. Simon Evans and Alexander Oldaker were 38th and 42nd respectively.

There were no injuries except for two lost shoes.

Minor novices gain convincing puck win

The Georgetown Minor Hockey Novice "AA" team scored a 5-1 win in exhibition play against Brampton on the weekend.

Peter Mashinter got the first of his three goals early in the game with an assist by Warren Evans. The boys kept the pressure on and after killing off a penalty, Aaron McLaughlin got the puck over to Nathan Milne who got off a good shot that was blocked but Andy Kerslake banged in the loose puck.

In the second period Peter got another goal and Nathan Milne scored too. Both goals were assisted by Ryan Taylor with Andy digging out the puck for Nathan's goal.

The Brampton boys got one by Andrew Craig in the second after he made several stops but he sealed them off in the third.

Curtis Carrs hard work paid off in the third with an assist on Pete's third goal also assisted by Warren Evans. Deserving defensive credits were Jamie Briggs and Chris Corney who along with the rest of the team made sure the opposition didn't get many chances.

slon, Rena Gray, secretary of the Inter County League, Al Gogan former youth coach and current parent of the girls who just failed to make the final day trophies, Bryan Turner of the Mariners and referees, daughter Trish, former player of mine, Jimmy Clark, former youth coach, ref and Meteor player of inordinate skills and visitor Mike who is on vacation from Manchester - trying to get away from Man United's ills of the present. The only one missing was Erwin Wittich, Meteor president and Inter County executive.

For the second week in succession rain played havoc with fixtures, and it is a few years since we had so many problems at the end of the season. I recall in one of my early years as president of the club we had to postpone the finals and play them off in midweek - not the same as a finals day. Anyway, last week the boys had to change from Neilson to the High School and so also this weekend with the girls round robin finals. Dorsey and Yoder also saw duty as we had to make last minute changes in the program.

I had to disappear to a pre-arranged golf tournament at midday and therefore do not have much information on the finishes. From what I did see, the young ladies enjoyed themselves in the wet. Most of the best soccer can be played in the rain and mud for some reason.

The weather's interference meant several alterations to scheduled games at senior level in the Inter County. Some teams have had to play three games in six days in order to complete the play-offs by this coming Saturday. As it is, this evening Rangers play Villa 'B' at Cedarvale at 7 p.m. followed by Trexcon and Park Avenue Collision in the second division semi finals. On Monday last Meteor White and Ajax met and Ancient Mariners met Villa 'A' in the first division semis. This Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m. sees the second division final and is followed by the first division final. At the end of the day league, playoff and goalkeeper awards will be made to the winners.

The Werner Bauer goalkeeper awards go to Meteor Blue and Milton Rangers having been voted as the winners by their opposing teams at the recent league meeting.

Last week's games produced some exciting soccer for the fans.

Rain plays havoc with fixtures

Varian went to Ajax and both teams battled to a 1-1 tie in what was described as an excellent game with the result just right.

As this game was going on Meteor White ran up their fourth win in a row at Villa by 1-0 to reach the semi finals with a perfect record, in another good contest. Meanwhile the Ancient ones took the field with seven players and took an early lead with Sean McQuarrie banging home from an oblique angle high past the Blue 'Keeper. Blue came back and several chances went a-begging on successive ricochets off defenders before the ball was booted out for a corner. Mariners played man to man soccer as more players arrived and so the game continued with the Mariners in control. A late goal from Steve Swinscoe sealed the victory. Mariners moved into the semi final and Blue were out.

Villa then played Varian for the right to march on and Villa came out on by 4-1 after losing the first goal of the game. Two goals just before half time set Villa on their way. Regrettably three players were ejected, two from Varian and one from Villa late in the game. Ajax then met Mariners at Cedarvale and another memorable match took place. Unbelievably Ajax scored in the first minute on a breakaway as the Ancients were caught upfield and cold. As the game progressed it became a contest between the Ajax running and Mariner skill and older legs (mainly). A first half equaliser from a Lee Tyrell poke from 15 yards and a second half smash from Rich Middaugh sealed Ajax' fate. To the credit of Ajax, as usual, they never gave up. Big Jim Kemper had a fantastic game in net and Bill Van Soelen had a strong midfield game with Paul and Jeff Dykxhoorn running well up front. In the end the Mariners deserved the win. The result is the lineup of White vs Ajax and Mariners vs Villa 'A' (Monday, 22nd).

Second Division Trexcon pounced upon Milton FC by 5-1 to put them into the semi-final against Park Ave. Collision. Park had two tremendous games to reach the semi for the second season running, after two defeats. Their comeback against Master Mariners to win 3-2 was an excellent result. All goals came from headers from close in as the defence were left standing still. The game went end to end in spells as both teams had their moments of command. Konrad Grauber and John Van Der Zeide netted for the Masters and Aurelio Garcia, Billy Blackburn (the best of three in my opinion), and Eddie Patterson netted for Park. This game made Park's game with Milton superfluous and so Park meet Trexcon this evening. Rangers marched into the semi with a string of strong wins and they will meet Villa 'B' which came on strongly through the playoffs.

Thence to Saturday and the finals and the long winter nights of rest and recuperation.

Starting with the first week of youth bowling in the new 1986-87 season at Georgetown Bowl, seven hundred scores have become the expected norm. The YBC has hit it's first 100. Julie McCurry (senior) powered games of 261-260-278 for a sixth 819 triple. Other top seniors were Chris Somers 674 (243), Brent MacIsaac 672 (263), Brian Terrell 651 (268), Dave Hicks 632 (234) and Trina Bassett 630 (227). Even Robin MacLeod, a 131 average bowler, hit her first six hundred triple, a 623 (623). MacLeod during the summer together with McCurry passed their government Level 1 certification for coaches and instructors, and now pass on their expertise to budding stars at Georgetown Bowl. Little Bryan Foster 15 years old had a 288 with 111 as high single.

The bastards were led by the 124 (119) of David Rivard. High singles were rolled by Alain Latouque 223 and Jason Ogden 213.

The juniors are starting to shape up in time for the qualifying dates for their first tournament, the Master-Junior Championships. The dates are October 4 and 11 in league play.

The seniors are prepping for the Senior Mixed Championships. To complete all registrations must be in before the end of September. The league teams are also being formed.

The Master-Bowlers Association is holding it's "Walker's Special 100" Classic tournament in St. Catharines this coming weekend, Sept. 27 and 28.
