In the hills

Super Sundays

Super Sundays are back in town for another season of entertainment for children.
Nov. 2 storyteller Robert Munsch is featured at the John Elliot Theatre. The Music of April and Susan are on stage Jan. 18.
Tickets are on sale at Penniesworth and Georgetown Fabric or call 877-4786. The cost is $6 for the series during the month of September.

Hospice help needed

Volunteers are needed for the North Halton Hospice to work with the terminally ill and their families. A volunteer training program starts Oct. 20. For more information call 854-2750.

Milton fall fair

Looking for a weekend outing? Entertainment and education with a rural-urban flair is the theme of the 133rd annual Milton Fall Fair.
The fair is being held Friday to Sunday Sept. 26-28 at the Milton Fairgrounds. Information and prize lists are available from Mrs. H. Hall, call 335-9210.

Bowl for fun

There is still time to join Georgetown bowling leagues and newcomers are welcome.
Instruction is provided afternoons, evenings and Sundays at 11 a.m. Come out for fun, meet new friends, take part in tournaments and parties.
For more information call 87-9922.

Corrections

Also, a story on Page A1 of The Herald's Sept. 17 edition, incorrectly noted the date of the Pageant of the Horse. The date should have been Sept. 21. The Herald regrets the errors.

Injured workers meet

The North Halton Association of Injured Workers will meet today (Wednesday) at 7:30 p.m. at the Optimists Hall on Commercial Street in Milton. For information write P.O. Box 444, Milton, or call 877-9697.

Arena grant

A grant of $3,000 to assist with improvements to the Georgetown Memorial Arena was announced today by Don Knight, M.P.P. for Halton-Burlington on behalf of the Ministry of Tourism and Recreation.
The grant has been approved as a result of an application made by the Town of Halton Hills for a Capital Conservation Grant.

Blue box works

The blue box program in Peel Region is doing so well, that Halton Region is looking at the separation at source curbside collection program of its neighbor.
Peel started the program in Mississauga in June, providing households with a blue box in which tins, glass bottles and newspapers are to be put for collection on garbage day.

Want to help?

Volunteering is a great way to develop skills, gain experience and meet new people. The North Halton Volunteer Bureau, a program of the Social Planning Council, is looking for volunteers to do clerical work. Leaders are also needed for a mom/tot program and to lead a widow/widowers support group. If you are interested in these or any other volunteer opportunities, call 877-3219.

Sunday at Scotsdale

Pageant of the Horse

The Governor General's Horse Guards performed a number of tasks at Heritage Horse Park Sunday, including escorting the guest of honor, the honorable Vincent Kerrio, Ontario minister of Energy and Natural Resources. They also performed a musical ride and gave a demonstration in tent pegging. (Herald photo)

Finely groomed horses, beautiful carriages and well dressed riders were part of the show at Heritage Horse Park Sunday. Ken and Maxine Ribbey are seen here waiting to enter the performing arena.

Lorne Scots trooping their colors

A colorful and seldom-seen military ceremony will be staged Saturday by the Lorne Scots, a Canadian Armed Forces Reserve unit based in Brampton, Georgetown and Oakville. The "Lornes" will hold a "Trooping the Color" to commemorate three notable events in their lengthy history.

This past Sept. 14 marked the 120th Anniversary of the founding of the 36th (Peel) Battalion, and Sept. 18th marked the 120th Anniversary of the 20th (Halton) Battalion of Infantry. Both units, disbanded long ago, are represented today by the Lorne Scots (Peel, Dufferin and Halton Regiment), which will mark its 50th Anniversary this Dec. 18.

Guest of honor for the special Trooping ceremony and Regimental Reunion will be the Honorable George Hees, Minister of Veterans' Affairs.

The Lornes will troop the Regimental Color, as the Queen's Color is carried only in the presence of the Monarch, a member of the Royal Family, or the Monarch's representative.

The Trooping will get underway at 2 p.m., at Century Gardens, Voddan Street East, Brampton. A unique aspect to this event will take place after the Hon. George Hees inspects the Regiment. At that point, all former members of the unit will be called out of the stands to take their place on the parade square, and they will march off together.

For more information, contact Major (Retired) Dick Honey at 451-2823.

Drug abuse committee fights Crack

There are fashions in clothes and furniture. Unfortunately there are also fashions in drugs. One of the newest and deadliest is called "Crack". It is an inexpensive, highly potent and addictive form of cocaine. Pushers sell pellet-sized "rocks" in tiny plastic vials for as little as $10.

The low price tag brings the drug within the reach of an even younger clientele. The highly addictive properties of the drug cause the user to become hooked in a frighteningly short period of time.

Crack is cocaine intensified. Its effect is like that of cocaine, but amplified, sharper, meaner, uglier. Crack is smoked and is so rapidly absorbed that it hits the brain within seconds.

Crack causes many dangerous changes to the body. Blood vessels rapidly constrict. Blood pressure and heart rate increase dramatically. The user is a key candidate for respiratory failure or coronary attack. The intense stimulation of the brain can lead to convulsions.

Signs to look for if you suspect someone is using this deadly drug include hoarseness and chronic sore throat, loss of appetite and sleeplessness. Also be on the lookout for a wide mood swings from euphoria to depression, to irritability and paranoia.

More information about this drug or any other addictive drugs may be obtained by calling the Drug Abuse Committee at 877-6915. We will gladly supply literature, speakers and video tapes on request. We want to help make Halton Hills Drug Aware so we can work together to make it Drug Free. Office hours are Monday 6-9 p.m., Wednesday 1-4 p.m. and Friday 9 a.m. to noon.

Study looks at why we volunteer

The Halton Social Planning Council has recently been awarded a Section 38 Grant from the Canada Employment and Immigration Commission to complete a volunteer motivation study, develop a family budgeting guide and update and expand the health and social services directory.

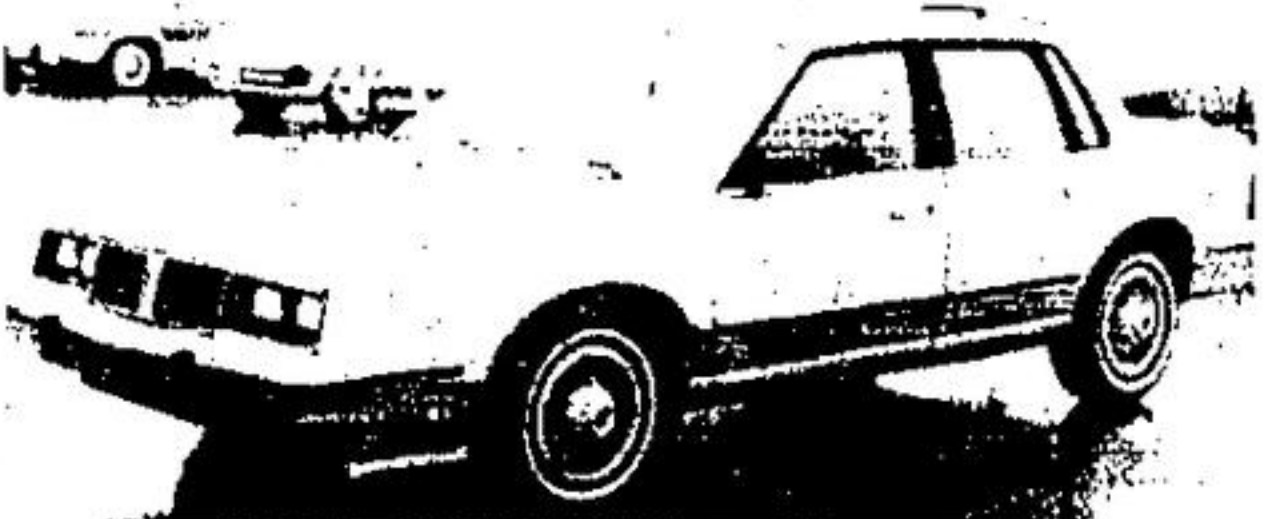

Work on the projects will be completed by Christmas.
