When the orange-and-black UNICEF boxes arrive at your door this Halloween, please give generously. Every contribution makes a difference.

Stamps that help others

'Christmas Seals launching The Lung Association's Christmas Seal Appeal will be reaching approximately 94,000 households in Halton Region the early part of November. Christmas Seals have been the traditional way for The Lung Association to raise funds since 1927, when tuberculosis was the scourge of North America and Europe. "The goal for the 1986 campaign in Ontario is $4.5 million," says President, Mrs. Mary Campbell. "Our goal in Halton Region is $145,000.

Give to UNICEF

October 15 is remembered for Halloween. For over 30 years children have carried UNICEF boxes on Halloween night to help children in the world's poorest countries live healthier lives. The United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) assures that your contributions go a long way in helping others. A little over a dollar can buy enough Vitamin A capsules to protect 30 toddlers from nutritionally-caused blindness for a year. Just $5 can immunize a child for LIFE against the six major child-killing diseases. Ten cents can save a child from death by dehydration or buy a mother a growth-monitoring chart for her child.

58th birthday yearbook

By MID BRUNSKI Herald Special

The Ladies Auxiliary, Royal Canadian Legion Branch 120, were most fortunate to receive a photo of Jenny Taylor, Liz Kemshead, Maud Shephard and Mrs. Sargent, with Vertle and Anne Collins in attendance. This photo was taken during Veterans Week in 1967, Centennial Year and now has a place of honor in our 1986, 58th birthday yearbook.

If there are any other photos out there in your cupboards, do not disregard them. Phone me at 877-4225 as we are and have been compiling a history of our ladies in the past. Without these, our charter members, we would not be celebrating our 58th birthday this year. I have also received wonderful photos of Lillian Roney and only await one of Aleda McCartney, who are the only two charter members we have with us this year.

I am sorry to have to report that the Cullen Gardens Trip in November is off. There did not seem to be too much interest and a half bus load is not our idea of a successful evening out to honor our seniors.

Ladies night was a great success. Following are the winners of the elimination draw: Mary Anne Roy, Marion Brake, Jocelyn Sheppard, Linda Paul, Trudy Paul, Dianne Christie and Sandra Smith all won $10 each. The following ladies won $50, Rita Raynor, MCM 026 and Sherrin Middleton. $100 went to Lillian Gaillford and $300 went to Mid Brunski. Remember the boardroom will be open from Thursday at 3 p.m. till 9 p.m. and Friday from 2 till 9 p.m. to receive donations to the bazaar on Oct. 25. Dates to remember: Nov. 1, zone

Crunchy, crisp, juicy. Those are three words to describe the red apples brought (left to right) Steven, 11, and Allen Manchur, 10, were chomping on Saturday afternoon. With their parents, the two Etobicoke lads were picking apples at Orchardlaw Orchards on Fifth Line. They say it's an annual activity for them, and hopefully mom will make apple crisp when they get the fruit home. (Herald photo)

Trainable Mentally Handicapped children were treated to a Thanksgiving turkey dinner with all the trimmings last Wednesday at Joseph Gibbons Public School. After the meal it was time to burn off some calories with local school board dignitaries. Seen here in the back row are teacher Brenda Harrison, Director of Education Wally Revor, trustee Dick Howitt, and paraprofessionals Janice Rea (far right). Students enrolled in the TMII program are: Jeffrey Harrison, John McDuffe, Pamela McKay, Debbie Neugebauer, Jennifer Sidebottom, Jennifer Stapleton, Kerri Dalzell, Dean Haggett, Jody Herring, Diana Hillman, Jeffrey McEachern, Wilfred McEachern.

2 wins for Novices

Casselman Fuels AA Minor Novices scored two big wins on the weekend - 10-0 in Burlington and 7-0 over Chinguacousy. The boys were hungry for scoring and played strong defence to keep the opposition off the scoresheets.

Burlington is usually tough to beat but was overwhelmed in all three periods of play of this game. Gary McNiven got two goals and Tim Van Hinte cashed in three to lead the scoring with Nathan Milne, Robert Walsh and Pete Mashinter adding singles. Jaimie Briggs and Warren Evans, who usually play defence, took advantage of the opportunity to play forward and got a goal each. Assists were credited to Van Hinte, Briggs, Kerslake, Mashinter (2), McLaughlin (2), McNiven, Curt Carr and Ryan Taylor.

The Chinguacousy goalie was bombarded with shots while Georgetown's Andrew Craig had to be sharp on a few occasions. For the Taking no chances

The Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 120, isn't taking any chances.

Last week the Georgetown Legion ran an ad in The Herald warning people that the annual poppy campaign is the only Legion appeal to the public on behalf of veterans.

In the past, businesses in other communities have sold calendars or pencils without authorization from Dominion Command, said Harry Brown. Mr. Brown is the
