

Football Rebels on short end of contests

The Georgetown District High School junior boys football team experienced its first real blowout of the 1986 season.

The Rebels dropped a 50-8 decision Wednesday to Loyola at the Georgetown field. The Loyola loss came just two days after Georgetown dropped a surprising 18-7 decision to E.C. Drury also at the Georgetown field.

Georgetown was expected to defeat the Drury club and advance to the upper level in the Tier II level as a result. Yet even with the defeat Georgetown advanced to the top portion by way of a coin-flip, which was required because Pearson and Drury both were tied with Georgetown at 1-2.

Rebel coach Rick Redshaw was disappointed with the loss Monday. He had put a number of first-year people on defence figuring the first-team offence could handle responding to any points Drury managed to score. However, the offence wasn't able to come up with more than a converted major. The Rebel scorer wasn't available but Nick Varricchio had the convert.

"Our offence just didn't block," Redshaw said. "We had no get-up and go."

Redshaw implemented a new cross-blocking formation that his offence used against Loyola. The new wrinkle worked as both running backs Tim Racinsky and Kirk Serjeantson had over 60 yards rushing.

"But they just overpowered us," Redshaw said. "Our size hurt us. They saw we were tired and just kept running. I think they wanted to prove they were a first-place club and they proved their point to us."

Quarterback Colin McMurray scored the lone Georgetown major on a quarterback sneak. What made the play important was McMurray called the sneak after the Georgetown coaches had sent in a play of their own to use. McMurray noticed the Loyola nose tackle had shifted, and made the necessary adjustment. Varricchio converted the TD.

"There was also another time when they blitzed and he read it, pivoted and ran the other way for about 10 yards," Redshaw said. "He read the play well."

Georgetown hosts Milton today at the Georgetown field in its final regular season contest of the year. After today the teams will be ranked 1-8 and the playoffs will begin. The top four clubs will play for the Tier II championship while the bottom four will tangle for the consolation title.

Redshaw thinks his club will be ranked either sixth or seventh and will play on the consolation side once again this year. Last year Georgetown captured the consolation championship. Redshaw had hoped to improve upon where his club ended up last season.

"I'm disappointed that we're 1-3 because we should be 2-1," he said. "But I'll really be disappointed if we end up lower than what we were last year."

NOTES-Quarterback Sandor Gombocz is through for the year with an injury. That means McMurray will start the remainder of the season....Wednesday's game was Georgetown's third in seven days.

Centennial Chargers off to good start

The Centennial girls volleyball team took part in their first tournament of the year. On Saturday the team travelled to Williams Parkway Senior School in Bramalea to take part in a very competitive six team tournament that included the top four schools from last year's Provincial Cup competition.

The Chargers' first opponents were their rivals from their own league Sam Sherratt from Milton. The girls were equal to the challenge from a tough Sherratt squad as they won by scores of 15-8 and 15-13. The next opponents for the Chargers were last year's Provincial Cup champions MacMillan from Scarborough. The Chargers won both games by scores of 15-7 and 15-10.

Glendale School from Bramalea were the next victims of the Chargers as they were defeated by the score of 15-5 in both games. Bliss Carmen School of Scarborough, finalists in the Provincial Cup '85, were Centennial's next opponents. The Chargers edged Bliss Carmen in the first game 15-13 but suffered their first defeat of the round robin as Bliss was victorious 15-12. Centennial completed the round robin play by defeating the host school Williams Parkway by scores of 15-8 and 15-5.

In the playoffs Centennial's opponents were the girls from Sherratt. Both teams played some excellent volleyball and again the Chargers edged out their rivals in two games by scores of 15-11 and 15-13.

The Chargers met Bliss Carmen in the championship round and again both teams played a good brand of volleyball but the Chargers were edged out by scores of 15-10 and 15-12. The Centennial girls will have to wait until Nov. 8 when they may get another opportunity to play Bliss Carmen at the Provincial Cup '86.

Taking part in the tournament for Centennial were second year players Trisha Harkley, Julie Arnold, Kim Collison, Yolande Skelcher, Sharon Woolgar and first year players Lisa Hamilton, Leanne Ingills, Tracy Rehberg, Andrea McNeilly and Jenny Ryan.
