

Rockwell
International

We began production in Georgetown in early 1977, and employed only 24 people.

Now, almost ten years later the number of people we have on staff has increased to more than 100, and we are continuing to grow with expansion plans already underway.

We are proud to be a growing part of Georgetown.

Telecommunications
— by Rockwell