

Georgetown Alliance Church

Missionary spreads the word in Zaire

Two missionaries will be talking about how they've helped to spread Christianity abroad, beginning Nov. 26.

Sponsored by the Georgetown Alliance Church, their annual missions conference ends Nov. 30. The conference meeting places are held at various locations so members and guests can call 877-9816 or 873-0269 for clarification.

Lois Belsey and Rev. Bruce Edwards are the featured speakers.

REV. BRUCE EDWARDS
The "dark continent" of Africa claims such rapidly growing Christianity, that the Christian nations of Canada and the United States may see the day when African missionaries minister to North America. Canadians Rev. Bruce Edwards and his wife Donna Edwards, have served with The Christian and Missionary Alliance in Zaire for four years. The C and MA has ministered in Zaire for over 100 years. Today, there are over 1,000 organized churches and almost 1,800 unorganized groups with 2,700 national pastors.

Rev. Edwards teaches at the Evangelical Seminary in Boma, a city of 166,000 persons, situated on the Zaire River, 100 kilometres inland from the Atlantic coast. The Seminary itself is the highest level of training available to the Alliance churches of Zaire. In 1985-86 there were 39 students in the three-year program, and a full-time faculty of five. Donna Edwards has given leadership to the Alliance Health Centre in Boma. The Centre has a staff of 13 persons in addition to Dr.

Edwards, and sees an average of 1400 persons each month.

The Edwards have given their lives in this type of ministry because they are firmly convinced Christ is the answer to the problems of mankind and that training of nationals to reach their own people is the correct method. Meeting the physical needs of people often provides an opportunity to meet their spiritual needs as well.

MISS LOIS BELSEY
From stone-age people to church leaders - God has changed the lives of many Mont people in Irian Jaya, Indonesia, since the arrival of the missionary 35 years ago. Missionaries are now counselling, teaching and advising nationals to use up-to-date methods and educational tools in winning other nationals to Christ.

Miss Lois Belsey, missionary to the Mont people of Irian Jaya, spends her time preparing Sunday School, youth, literacy and women's study materials and teaches church leaders how to use them. Serving with the Christian and Missionary Alliance in Indonesia, Lois is excited about the new spiritual hunger shown by the Mont people. Earlier this year, 250 people were baptized indicating their desire to follow God.

In a male-oriented society whose esteemed values are anti-Christian and dominated by ancient folklore, God has broken through and changed lives. Canadian Lois Belsey considers it a privilege to work in this challenging ministry with The Christian and Missionary Alliance, an evangelical denomination with over 10,000 churches in 51 countries and with an overseas staff of 1,134.

Auxiliary member former Legion ladies secretary

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following is a report of the Ladies Auxiliary, Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 120, Georgetown.

By MID BRUNSKI
Herald Special

It is with a great deal of sadness that I report that Comrade and friend, Ileana Nicholson passed away Friday. Ileana has been a member of the auxiliary for some time and had been our secretary.

District Crib at Mount Hamilton, Nov. 15 saw the team of Gretta Stoddart, Rita Rudiger, Anne Nicholson and Monica Southan place fourth. These ladies will now be going on to provincial.

Dates to remember, Nov. 22, zone darts at Bronte, Nov. 29 zone cribbage at Georgetown, Dec. 8 zone darts, Bronte, and Dec. 13 Christmas Social at Brampton. Your November meeting of the auxiliary will be as usual at 8 p.m. Nov. 20. Let's have a great turnout as we will be discussing among other things our own Christmas party.

Mae Lawr tells me that Lily Maybanks is now sitting up and coming along quite nicely. Myrtil Zilio is still in hospital, at Georgetown. Abbie Haley has been moved to a Toronto hospital. Aleda McCartney is also doing quite well and is in Georgetown hospital, room "A" 1 and is looking forward to visitors. Aleda has also made me quite happy as she sat for pictures of herself for our album and the history of the branch. Aleda along with Lillian Roney are the only charter members we still have and our love and respect go out to these two ladies.

Our own Ethel Murray originally from South Shields, England, had a wonderful few weeks in London, England recently, when she attended the 40th reunion of war brides. She was also fortunate to meet her old friend Grace MacDonald who was also a war bride and whom she has not seen in 40 years. Welcome home Ethel.

Call in, students!

The reunion committee of the Georgetown District High School is looking for former students they've lost track of.

If you know the whereabouts of the following people, call 877-3443. The Centennial Reunion Celebration, called Back for '87, is a three-day event beginning July 3.

Historic members

Of the four ladies who started up the Lakeside Chapter of the IODE, three remain. The charter members seen above started the chapter 69 years ago on Oct. 6. Originally called the Independent Order of the Daughters of the Empire, the benevolent organization sent food and clothing overseas to soldiers fighting in the First World War.

Because there is no longer an Empire, the initials don't have periods between them. The organization is still carrying out good deeds in the community, however. Saturday they were raising funds by holding a bazaar. The historic three charter members are (front) Isabel Watson, (back row, from left) Marguerite Taylor and Stella Adamson. (Herald photo)

Girls detested long underwear

NORVAL-Marilyn Smith presided at the meeting of the Norval United Church Women Nov. 12 at 8 p.m. Jean Dunlop accompanied, for the singing of Oh God Our Help in Ages Past.

The theme for the devotional was The Community with Betty Johnson giving a paper and a poem by Lenore Laidlaw. Nellie Shea led in prayer. Gwen Laidlaw read the minutes and business included a report from Sharon Dunlop on the bazaar.

All members were instructed to bring a tea towel for next month's roll call. The Presbyterian is being held at the Cheltenham United Church Nov. 26 at 9 p.m. The Hillcrest Church craft sale and

Anniversary service

NORVAL-The fifth and final anniversary service of Huttonville United Church was held Nov. 9 at 10 a.m. The church was declared a heritage church and the hall as well was full to overflowing for the service of celebration and dedication.

The new electric organ and stained glass windows were dedicated. Special music was given by the choir, trained by Christine Higgins and Lori Patten was organist.

Reflections and impressions from a life-long member were given by Isobel Fraser, as well as by a new member Carol Baker. Marion Ramsdale sang a lovely solo, For Those Tears I Died. A fellowship hour followed.

African research

NORVAL-Dale McMurphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McMurphy, Huttonville, has received a position with World University Service of Canada. Dale is an honors graduate in International Relations from the University of Toronto. She left Nov. 11 and will spend two years in Lesotho.

She will be doing research for a professor at the University of Toronto and visiting Canadian development projects in East Africa. Dale will work in Zambia, Zimbabwe, Botswana and Kenya. She will be teaching English at the secondary school level.

Euchre winners

NORVAL-Norval Community Centre had six tables last Thursday. The winners were: Florie Alcott, Isobel Landry, George Burt, and Keith Webb with the lone hands award going to Vi Preston.

The lucky draw was won by Jean Cunningham and the convenors were Keith and Ethel Webb with Marie Murray.

Bridge winners

Duplicate bridge is offered for those interested at the Georgetown Legion (upstairs) every Monday afternoon at 1 p.m. except when a holiday falls on a Monday. There are free refreshments and partners if needed. Free play will be given for winners in first place.

cookie walk is Nov. 29 and everyone is invited.

Roll call was answered by early childhood memories, reminding all of cleaning coal oil lamp shades every morning, carrying water for house use, walking to school and how young women and girls detested wearing long underwear.

Marilyn then called on Dorothy McLean, who gave the history of the Norval Mills and the Rise and Decline of Norval as a commercial centre. Norval was much larger than Georgetown at one time.
