

Lots of jobs for Manor volunteers

There are a variety of positions open for volunteers at the Halton Centennial Manor, a home for seniors.

A person is required to assist the coordinator of the seniors' day program. The candidate would be asked to work independently and have a general knowledge of programs for seniors.

On evenings and weekends there is a position open for someone to assist with the various programs held such as teas, singings, piano playing and cards.

A person is needed to assist the adjutant with the residents' therapeutic programs 9-11:30 a.m. Monday, Tuesday and Friday.

The recreation coordinator could use some assistance in various programming Mondays and Fridays 10 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.

For more information on the above positions call Loren Smith at 878-4141.

Bridge

Duplicate bridge is offered, for those interested, at the Georgetown Legion (upstairs) every Monday afternoon at 1 p.m. except when a holiday falls on Monday.

There are free refreshments and partners if needed. Free play will be given for winners in first place.

Dec. 15 there will be a Christmas bridge.

Sympathy extended

NORVAL-Sympathy is extended to Fred and Marg Clarkson, RR2 Georgetown on the death of Fred's mother, Nellie Clarkson. Mrs. Clarkson, formerly of Huttonville, had been in ill health and spent the last nine years in the Peel Manor, Brampton. She had always been interested in music and had been a member of the Mendelson choir.

Bereaved families

NORVAL-Two Norval area related families are bereaved. Sympathy is extended to Flora and Earl MacArthur, RR2 Georgetown on the death of Flora's father George Green. Mr. Green, 83 years, farmed all his life at Holstein, RR1, except for the last two years which he spent with the MacArthurs.

IN AND OUT EAST

WITH LOW PRICES, EVERYDAY.

"I shop Valdi for their low prices on the brand name products I want. It's fast - I come in, and go out. I spend $20 or $30 each time but it would be a lot more someplace else."

—says Charlotte Lomanto
