Three winning Legion ladies crib teams

By MID BRUNSKI
Herald Special
The Ladies Auxiliary Royal Canadian Legion Branch 120 Georgetown are happy to report that Georgetown had three winning teams at cribbage in Cooksville this past Saturday. 1st prize went to team "A" with Vi Hewitt and Floss Tracy, 2nd place, team "B" with Rae McAusland and Mary Russell and team "F" came in third, at this writing I do not have the names of the ladies on this team.

Our general meeting will be Jan. 15 at 8 p.m. Let's have a big turnout for this, our first of the new year. I am happy to report that Aleda McCartney is now in Bennett Centre and is doing just fine and has her same phone number so this will make it easy for all her friends to call.
I have just been informed that Winnie Smith is in hospital in Guelph, we wish her a speedy recovery. Myrt Zillio has been transferred back to Georgetown hospital from Brampton and hope this means she will soon be coming home. Our shut-ins at various nursing homes are Margaret Hunter, Ann Heney, Lillian Roney, Hazel Preston and Thelma Green who is at Bennett Centre. We have not forgotten you comrades and we pray for your continued good health. Remember the meeting in the lounge Jan. 20 at 7 p.m.
