

Hot rocks at Centennial bonspiel

Skip Sil Sanna finishes off some last-minute sweeping on the ice at North Halton Golf and Country Club last Saturday. The Georgetown Centennial Reunion Committee sponsored a curling bonspiel for all current and former members of Georgetown District High School. When the event was over there were a lot of friendships rekindled and definitely some sore muscles. (Herald photo)

This curler eagerly checks out his turn of curlers for the all-day throw and waits in anticipation for the rock to strike. There was a good Centennial Reunion committee.

Making the most of a rock that's nearing the target is the object of this team of curlers consisting of (from left) Skip, Sil Sanna, Edgar Thatcher, Tom Hower and Chris Clarridge. A mix of curlers took to the ice Saturday to compete in the Centennial Reunion Bonspiel. There were young people, oldtimers, experts and novices.
