

Provincially ranked athletes

The Halton Charger Atom Boys finished third at the Canadian Cross Country Championships in Etobicoke last fall. Seen here (back from left) are Jake Mashinter, David Osborne, Brent Couling, (front) Chris Heipel and Andrew Elliott. Missing is coach Brian Cosgrove. (Herald photo)

Councillor Betty Fisher made a presentation to runner Bob Donker. Donker was a silver medalist at the provincial cross country championships. (Herald photo)

For a distinguished career in the sport of shooting John Nurse was recognized. Nurse recently moved up from the Expert level to the Masters division, the highest level of shooting.

Even though they were competing against opposition two to three years older all season, the Halton Hills Firestone Midgets finished second in O.A.S.A. "B" championship play. Seen here are (back from left) Bob Anderson, Mark Zebede, Jon Hammer, Alan Scott, (front) coach Robin Incoe, Mike Case and coach Fred Hammer. Missing are Carl Yaroschak, Collin Lewis, Steve Wagner, Jeff White, Peter Cargill, Kevin Lobsinger, Brian Doherty, Jason Rogers, Brad Demone, David Haynes, Mike Baker and coach David Willett. (Herald photo)

This bowling team from Georgetown finished second out of 17 teams from Ontario in the Junior Girls Division. Seen here are (back from left) Kathy Miller, coach Andy Parent, Tracy Ball, (front) Teri Korzak, Brenda Snow and Kelly Halley. (Herald photo)

A Georgetown District High School girls volleyball team became the first in the school's history to win an O.F.S.A.A. championship. Seen here are members of the winning Senior girls team: (back from left) Chris Harris, Alison Irvine, Tara Burroughs, coach Russell Linney, (front) Pam Murray, Lisa Mason and Shanna Long. Missing are Joanne Bingham, Jody Barwell, Chris Wilcox and coach Grant Clatworthy. (Herald photo)

The Georgetown District High School Senior boys volleyball team finished second in Ontario. They lost the provincial championship 2-1 to Kapuskasing High School. Seen here are team members Graham Shepherd, Adam Bennett, Jim Manning, assistant coach Russell Linney, (front) Ken Janssen, Jon Hammer and Mats Naslund. Missing are Pat Braund, Brent Hutt, Jay Corson, Pierre Chlason, Steve Chaffey, Ken Langdon, Don Campbell and coach Grant Clatworthy. (Herald photo)

For the sixth consecutive year a Georgetown District High School swimming team finished first in Ontario. Seen here are (back from left) Chris Goodlet, Jon Newcombe, Teresa Pollitt, Christian Wasserman, Joe Bray, (front) Brian Terrell, Jill Lusby, Chris Weldrick, Tony Hewer and coach Susan King. Missing are Jennal Lusby, Karen Pepper, Tiffany Goodlet, Kelly Roe, Kim Dryden, Tanya Goodlet, Tina Newman, Devon Greig, Nancy Cocks, Andrea Hamilton, Kerry Lewis, Kerry Dryden, Carber Goodlet, James Erskine, Derek Bridge, Jim Millington, Peter Bray, Jason Dodokin, Charlie Gibbs and Cam Oomen. (Herald photo)

Individual winners at the Recognition and Honor Awards Evening were plentiful. Among those who were honored are the following: Charles Weatherall, Lynne and Wayne Norton, Bob Daniell, Melanija Bray, Kara McGaw, Fiona Heaton, Connie Powers, Darren Kemp, Sue Craig, Andrew Braun, Gary Morrow, Anne Auty, Jess Ogden, Adam Poyutz, Amy Powers, Bob Donker, Yvonne Letarnee, Kyla Dreyer, John Douglas, John Nurse and Pat Woole. (Herald photo)