

Moore Park Plaza will be getting a facelift which is scheduled to start by June.

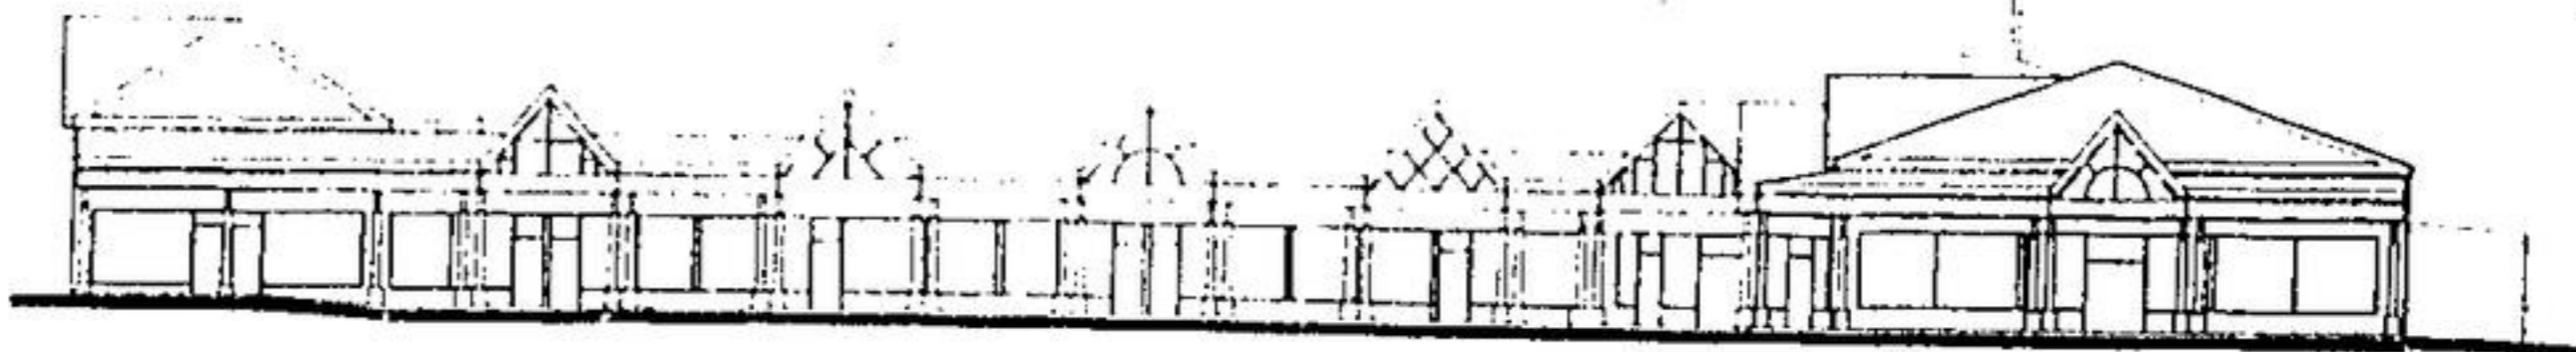

The announcement was made this week by managing agents Eurumart Management Corporation.

The design seen here was selected to properly reflect and enhance the surrounding community, said spokesman for Eurumart, Tom Laslo. The re-development is expected to cost approximately $650,000. Releasing of the centre has already begun and announcements of new stores are expected within the next few months.

There will also be a small addition to the plaza. The design blends in old styles with new architectural styles said Mr. Laslo. Types of stores expected to lease with the plaza would be service oriented, fast food and home improvement, he said.
