

Milton Heights ski squads qualify for semis

All four teams from the Milton Heights Ski Club have earned the right to advance to semi-final competition, scheduled to get underway this weekend.

This marks the first time the club has ever sent four teams to the semi-finals, as their exceptional regular season was capped off with two competitions on the weekend.

Saturday, members of the Mountain Dew division were at Glen Eden and raced against the Chicopee Club of Kitchener. The Milton Heights skiers outscored their opponents 104-91.

The top three Milton Heights finishers were Itéal Latreille of Oakville; Barton Luna of Mississauga; and Joey Hertz of Georgetown, who placed first, second and third, respectively in the boys' division.

Hertz has been named the top racer in the Mountain Dew division, based on his performances throughout the season.

In the girls' division, Monique Hoewing of Norval was third in the race, Cathy Bradley was fourth and Angela Fitzsimons of Georgetown was sixth.

The Mountain Dew squad has won all their races this season.

Sunday, a number of skiers from the Milton Heights club were at Glen Eden to race against Chicopee, this time in the higher age category.

The final outcome showed Chicopee on top by a 104-83 margin. Joey Kolosky of Oakville was Milton Heights' top skier in the boys' division, placing fifth. Liat Tan of Milton was sixth, while Rick Tanner of Burlington was ninth.

In the girls' competition, Heather Hollo of Burlington finished first; Allison Sterling of Brampton was second; and Dayna Williams of Burlington was fourth.

A meeting was scheduled to be held earlier this week to determine where the semi-final races will be held.

Sunny Acres eliminates Chinguacousy

The Sunny Acres Farms Major Midgets advanced to the Ontario Minor Hockey Association semi-final playdowns by taking a best-of-five series against Chinguacousy in three straight games.

The teams first met Feb. 8 at the Alcott Arena, and the locals put on one of their best performances of the season to defeat Chinguacousy 7-0.

The winners led 3-0 after the first period on goals by Dave Harris, Terry Dixon, and Mike Ross. Rory Kennedy picked up a pair of assists, while Neil Munro, Rob Cooper, and Ross had one each.

The second period saw three more goals fired into the Chinguacousy net, two from Dixon and another from Cooper. Ross picked up two assists, while singles went to Cooper and Chuck Peebles.

Midway through the final period, Dixon added his third goal, assisted by Cooper and Bill Herman.

Joe Balsom earned his third shutout of the season in net for Sunny Acres.

The second game of the series brought the teams together in Chinguacousy on Feb. 12, and the locals again came out on top, this time by a 5-2 score.

Ross had a hat-trick, with a goal in each period. Other Sunny Acres marksmen were Harris and Herman. Cooper picked up three assists, Kennedy had two and Dixon and Harris had one each.

The third game at the Alcott Sunday again ended up in a 5-2 victory for Sunny Acres.

The locals were trailing by a goal midway through the opening period, but Ross scored to even things up assisted by Cooper and Kennedy.

A minute later, the locals went ahead on a goal by Mark Zebede, assisted by Munro.

Chinguacousy came back to tie the score again late in the period, but midway through the second, Dixon scored to put Georgetown ahead to stay, set up by Herman.

Cooper added two insurance markers in the third, both assisted by Ross, to put the game out of Chinguacousy's reach.

Coincidentally, 15 years ago, the Sunny Acres Farms Midgets also put out Chinguacousy in three straight games in the OMHA playdowns.
